Federal Act on War Material (War Material Act, WMA)

of 13 December 1996 (Status as on 1 February 2013)

The Federal Assembly of the Swiss Confederation, based on the Article 41 paragraphs 2 and 3 and Article 64^{bis} of the Federal Constitution¹ and on the powers of the Confederation in foreign affairs^{2,3} and having considered the Federal Council Dispatch dated 15 February 1995⁴, decrees:

Chapter 1: General Provisions

Art. 1 Purpose

This Act has as its aim the fulfilment of Switzerland's international obligations and the respect of its foreign policy principles by means of controlling the manufacture and transfer of war material and related technology, while at the same time maintaining an industrial capacity in Switzerland that it adapted to the requirements of its national defence.

Art. 2 Principles

The following require authorisation by the Confederation:

- a. the manufacture of war material;
- b. the trade in war material;
- c. the brokerage of war material;
- d. the import, export and transit of war material;

AS 1998 794

¹ [BS 1 3]. These provisions are in accordance with Articles 107 paragraph 2 and 123 of the Federal Constitution of 18 April 1999 (SR 101)

² This description of powers corresponds to Article 54 paragraph 1 of the Federal Constitution of 18 April 1999 (SR 101)

³ Amended by No 1 2 of the Federal Act of 22 June 2001 on the Streamlining of Federal Legislation on Arms, War Material, Explosives and Goods Usable for Civilian and Military Purposes, in force since 1 March 2002 (AS 2002 248 257; BBl 2000 3369).

⁴ BBl 1995 II 1027

- e. the transfer of intellectual property, including know-how, and the granting of related rights, provided this relates to war material and is intended for private individuals or legal entities that have their domicile or headquarters abroad.

Art. 3⁵ Relation to other legislation

This Act applies without prejudice to customs legislation, the regulations on payment transactions and other legislation on foreign trade.

Art. 4 Application to federal armaments companies

The provisions relating to the initial licence (Art. 9–11) do not apply to federal armaments companies.⁶ The provisions on brokerage (Art. 15 and 16), import and export (Art. 17–19), and the transfer of intellectual property or the granting of rights thereto (Art. 20 and 21) do not apply to armaments companies, provided that their activities relate to the procurement of war material for the Swiss armed forces.

Art. 5 Definition of war material

¹ The following are deemed to be war material:

- a. Weapons, weapons systems, munitions and military explosives;
- b. Equipment that has been specifically conceived or modified for use in combat or for the conduct of combat and which is not as a general rule used for civilian purposes.

² War material also includes individual components and assembly packages, which may also be partially processed, provided it is discernable that such components cannot be used in the same form for civilian purposes.

³ The Federal Council shall designate what is war material in an ordinance.

Art. 6 Other definitions

¹ “Manufacture” within the meaning of this Act is any professional activity involving the production of war material or the modification of parts essential to its function.

² “Trade” within the meaning of this Act is any professional activity involving the offer, acquisition or passing on of war material.

³ “Brokerage” is:

⁵ Amended by No 14 of the Federal Act of 22 June 2001 on the Streamlining of Federal Legislation on Arms, War Material, Explosives and Goods Usable for Civilian and Military Purposes, in force since 1 March 2002 (AS 2002 248 257; BBl 2000 3369).

⁶ Amended by No 14 of the Federal Act of 22 June 2001 on the Streamlining of Federal Legislation on Arms, War Material, Explosives and Goods Usable for Civilian and Military Purposes, in force since 1 March 2002 (AS 2002 248 257; BBl 2000 3369).

- a. the creation of the essential requirements for the conclusion of contracts relating to the manufacture, offer, acquisition or passing on of war material, the transfer of intellectual property, including know-how, or the granting of rights thereto, insofar as they relate to war material;
- b. the conclusion of such contracts if this service is provided by third parties.

Chapter 2: Prohibited War Material⁷

Art. 7 Nuclear, biological and chemical weapons

- a. to develop, produce, broker, acquire, transfer to anyone, import, export, carry in transit, or store nuclear, biological or chemical weapons (NBC weapons) or to possess them in any other way;
- b. to incite anyone to carry out an act mentioned in letter a above;
- c. to assist anyone to carry out an act mentioned in letter a above.

² The foregoing prohibition does not apply to acts that are intended:

- a. to enable the destruction of NBC weapons by the agencies responsible therefor; or
- b. to provide protection against the effects of NBC weapons or to combat such effects.

³ The prohibition also applies to acts carried out abroad, irrespective of the law at the place of commission, if:

- a. the acts violate international law agreements to which Switzerland is a party; and
- b. the perpetrator is Swiss or is domiciled in Switzerland.

Art. 8 Anti-personnel mines⁸

- a. to develop, produce, broker, acquire, transfer to anyone, import, export, carry in transit, or store anti-personnel mines or to possess them in any other way;
- b. to incite any person to carry out an act mentioned in letter a;
- c. to assist in committing an act mentioned in letter a⁹

⁷ Amended by No I of the Federal Act of 16 March 2012, in force since 1 Feb. 2013 (AS 2013 295; BBl 2011 5905).

⁸ Term according to No I of the Federal Act of 19 Dec. 2003, in force since 1 June 2004 (AS 2004 2451 2452; BBl 2003 2196 2210). This amendment is taken into account throughout this Act.

⁹ Amended by No I of the Federal Act of 16 March 2012, in force since 1 Feb. 2013 (AS 2013 295; BBl 2011 5905).

² For the development of procedures in mine detection, mine clearance, or mine destruction techniques and for training in such procedures, the retention or transfer of a number of anti-personnel mines is permitted. The number of such mines shall not exceed the minimum number absolutely necessary for the above-mentioned purposes.¹⁰

³ Anti-personnel mines are explosive devices that are placed under, on, or near the ground or any other surface and which are conceived or modified so as to explode as a result of the presence, approach, or contact of a person, and which are intended to incapacitate, injure or kill one or more persons. Mines designed to be detonated by the presence, proximity or contact of a vehicle as opposed to a person that are equipped with anti-handling devices¹¹ are not considered anti-personnel mines as a result of being so equipped.¹²

⁴ “Anti-handling device” means a device intended to protect a mine and which is part of, linked to, attached to or placed under the mine and which activates when an attempt is made to tamper with or otherwise intentionally disturb the mine.¹³

Art. 8a¹⁴ Cluster munition

- a. to develop, produce, broker, acquire, transfer to anyone, import, export, carry in transit, or store cluster munition or to possess the same in any other way;
- b. to incite anyone to carry out an act mentioned in letter a above;
- c. to assist anyone to carry out an act mentioned in letter a above.

² Paragraph 1 also applies to explosive bomblets that are specifically intended to be dispersed or released by dispensers affixed to an aircraft.

¹⁰ Amended by No I of the Federal Act of 16 March 2012, in force since 1 Feb. 2013 (AS 2013 295; BBl 2011 5905).

¹¹ Term in accordance with No I of the Federal Act of 19 Dec. 2003, in force since 1 June 2004 (AS 2004 2451 2452; BBl 2003 2196 2210). This amendment is taken into account throughout this Act.

¹² Amended by No I of the Federal Act of 20 March 1998, in force since 1 March 1999 (AS 1999 1155 1156; BBl 1998 679).

¹³ Inserted by No I of the Federal Act of 19 Dec. 2003, in force since 1 June 2004 (AS 2004 2451 2452; BBl 2003 2196 2210).

¹⁴ Inserted by No I of the Federal Act of 16 March 2012, in force since 1 Feb. 2013 (AS 2013 295; BBl 2011 5905).

Art. 8b¹⁵ Prohibition of direct financing

¹ The direct financing of the development, manufacture or acquisition of prohibited war material is itself prohibited.

² Direct financing within the meaning of this Act is the direct granting of credits, loans or gifts or comparable financial advantages in order to pay or advance costs and expenditures that are associated with the development, manufacture or acquisition of prohibited war material.

Art. 8c¹⁶ Prohibition of indirect financing

¹ The indirect financing of the development, manufacture or acquisition of prohibited war material is itself prohibited where the prohibition of direct financing is circumvented thereby.

² Indirect financing within the meaning of this Act is:

- a. participation in companies that develop, manufacture or acquire prohibited war material;
- b. the acquisition of debt securities or other investment products issued by such companies.

Chapter 3: Initial LicenceArt. 9 Subject matter

- a. wishes to manufacture war material;
- b. wishes to trade in war material for his own account or for the account of another, or to broker war material on a professional basis for recipients abroad, irrespective of the location of the war material requires an initial licence.

² No initial licence is required by those who:

- a. supply as sub-contractors companies in Switzerland that hold an initial licence;
- b. execute orders from the Swiss government in respect of war material for the Swiss armed forces;
- c.¹⁷ manufacture, trade in, or acts as a professional broker outside Switzerland for firearms under the legislation on weapons, their components or accessories or their munitions or munitions components and who therefore holds a licence to trade arms under the legislation on weapons;

¹⁶ Inserted by No I of the Federal Act of 16 March 2012, in force since 1 Feb. 2013 (AS 2013 295; BBl 2011 5905).

¹⁷ Amended by Annex No 1 of the Federal Act of 22 June 2007, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 5499 5405 Art. 2 let. d; BBl 2006 2713).

- d. manufactures or trades in Switzerland in explosives, pyrotechnic devices or propellant powder covered by the legislation on explosives and who therefore holds a licence under the legislation on explosives.¹⁸

Art. 10 Requirements

¹ The initial licence is granted to natural or legal persons if:

- a. the applicant offers the required guarantee for the proper conduct of their business affairs; and
- b. the intended activity is not contrary to the national interest.

² If the applicant also requires authorisation in terms of the federal or cantonal legislation on weapons for his activities, the initial licence is granted only if authorisation under the legislation on weapons has been granted.

Art. 11 Scope

¹ The initial licence is non-assignable and applies only to the war material mentioned therein. It may be of limited duration and subject to conditions and requirements.

² It may be revoked completely or in part if the requirements for its grant are no longer fulfilled.

³ It does not replace authorisations that must be obtained in terms of other regulations under federal or cantonal law.

Chapter 4: Specific Licences

Section 1: Forms of Licence

Art. 12

In respect of the activities that require a licence in terms of this Act, a distinction is made between the following specific licences:

- a.¹⁹ ...

- g.²⁰ trading licence.

Section 2:²¹ ...

Art. 13 and 14

Section 3: Brokerage Licence

Art. 15 Subject Matter

¹ Anyone who on Swiss territory wishes to broker war material for a recipient abroad, without operating his own production plant for the manufacture of war material in Switzerland, requires, in addition to an initial licence in terms of Article 9, a specific licence for each individual case.

² The Federal Council may provide exceptions for certain countries.

³ Anyone who acts as a professional broker for a recipient abroad in respect of firearms under the legislation on weapons, their components or accessories, or their munitions or munitions components shall receive a specific licence only if he proves that he holds a corresponding licence to trade arms under the legislation on weapons.²²

Art. 16 Scope

¹ A brokerage licence may be limited in duration and subject to conditions and requirements.

² If exceptional circumstances so require, a brokerage licence may be suspended or revoked.

²⁰ Inserted by No I 2 of the Federal Act of 22 June 2001 on the Streamlining of Federal Legislation on Arms, War Material, Explosives and Goods Usable for Civilian and Military Purposes, in force since 1 March 2002 (AS 2002 248 257; BBl 2000 3369).

Section 3a:²³ Trading Licence

Art. 16a Subject matter

¹ Anyone who on Swiss territory trades in war material with persons abroad, without operating his own production plant for the manufacture of war material in Switzerland, requires, in addition to an initial licence in terms of Article 9, a specific licence for each individual case.

² The Federal Council may provide exceptions for certain countries.

³ Anyone who from Swiss territory trades with persons abroad in firearms under the legislation on weapons, their components or accessories, or their munitions or munitions components shall receive a specific licence only if he proves that he holds a corresponding licence to trade arms under the legislation on weapons.²⁴

Art. 16b Applicability

¹ A trading licence may be limited in duration and subject to conditions and requirements.

² If exceptional circumstances so require, a trading licence may be suspended or revoked.

Section 4: Import, Export and Transit Licences

Art. 17 Subject matter

¹ The import, export and transit of war material require a licence from the Confederation.

² A transit licence is also required for deliveries to a Swiss free warehouse or customs warehouse or for deliveries from such warehouses abroad.²⁵

³ The Federal Council regulates the licensing requirements and the procedure for the transit of war material through the airspace.

^{3bis} It may provide for a simplified licensing procedure for the export or transit to or from certain countries, or provide for exemptions from licensing.²⁶

²³ Inserted by No 12 of the Federal Act of 22 June 2001 on the Streamlining of Federal Legislation on Arms, War Material, Explosives and Goods Usable for Civilian and Military Purposes, in force since 1 March 2002 (AS 2002 248 257; BBl 2000 3369).

²⁴ Amended by Annex No 1 of the Federal Act of 22 June 2007, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 5499 5405 Art. 2 let. d; BBl 2006 2713).

^{3ter} It may provide for a simplified licensing procedure for the import of specific parts, assembly packages or anonymous components.²⁷

⁴ No import licence under this Act is required by those who:

- a. import war material intended for use by the Swiss Confederation;
- b.²⁸ bring firearms, their components or accessories, or their munitions or munitions components into Swiss territory under the legislation on weapons;
- c. import explosives, pyrotechnic devices or propellant powder.²⁹

Art. 18 Non-re-export declarations; Exemptions

¹ As a general rule, an export licence may be granted only if it relates to a delivery to a foreign government or to an undertaking acting on behalf of a foreign government, and if a declaration is provided by that government stating that the material will not be re-exported (a non-re-export declaration).

² A non-re-export declaration may be waived in the case of individual parts or assembly packages of war material if it is established that, once abroad, they will be integrated into a product and not re-exported unmodified, or in the case of anonymous components, that their value in comparison with the finished war material is negligible.

Art. 19 Scope

¹ Import, export and transit licences are limited in their duration.

² If exceptional circumstances require, they may be suspended or revoked.

Section 5: Licence for the Transfer of Intellectual Property or the Granting of Rights thereto

Art. 20 Subject matter

¹ A licence is required in order to enter into a contract for the transfer from Switzerland to a natural person or legal entity with domicile or registered office abroad of intellectual property including know-how that is essential for the manufacture or the ation to Schengen and Dublin, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (SR 362; AS 2008 5405 Art. 1 let. d).

²⁷ Inserted by No I 2 of the Federal Act of 22 June 2001 on the Streamlining of Federal Legislation on Arms, War Material, Explosives and Goods Usable for Civilian and Military Purposes, in force since 1 March 2002 (AS 2002 248 257; BBl 2000 3369).

²⁸ Amended by Annex No 1 of the Federal Act of 22 June 2007, in force since 12 Dec. 2008 (AS 2008 5499 5405 Art. 2 let. d; BBl 2006 2713).

²⁹ Amended by No I 4 of the Federal Act of 22 June 2001 on the Streamlining of Federal Legislation on Arms, War Material, Explosives and Goods Usable for Civilian and Military Purposes, in force since 1 March 2002 (AS 2002 248 257; BBl 2000 3369).

use of war material. The same applies to entering into a contract that grants rights to such intellectual property and know-how.

² Intellectual property, including know-how, that:

- a. is required for the routine carrying out of installation work, maintenance, inspection and repair of war material whose export has been licensed;
- b. is available in the public domain;
- c. that must be disclosed for the purposes of a request for a Patents in another country; or
- d. that is used for the purposes of basic scientific research.

is not subject to the foregoing licensing requirement.

³ The Federal Council may provide for exemptions for certain countries.

Art. 21 Requirements

A licence is not granted if the recipient has his registered office or domicile in a country to which the export of the relevant war material is prohibited.

Section 6: Licensing Requirements for Export Trade

Art. 22 Manufacture, brokerage, export and transit

The manufacture, brokerage, export and transit of war material for recipients abroad shall be authorised if this is not contrary to international law, international obligations, and the principles of Swiss foreign policy.

Art. 23 Supply of replacement parts

The export of replacement parts for war material whose export has been authorised shall also be authorised if no exceptional circumstances have arisen in the intervening period that would require the revocation of the original licence.

Art. 24 Import

The import of war material shall be authorised if it is not contrary to international law or national interests.

Section 7: Embargo

Art. 25³⁰

The granting of licences is not permitted if enforcement measures in terms of the Embargo Act of 22 March 2002³¹ have been ordered.

Chapter 5: Controls, Procedure, Fees

Art. 26 Controls

The Federal Council shall issue regulations on the control of the manufacture, trade, brokerage, import, export and transit of war material as well as the transfer of intellectual property, including know-how, or the granting of rights thereto, to the extent that these relate to war material.

Art. 27 Obligation to provide information

The holder of a licence under this Act or the proprietor and the staff of the corresponding company are obliged to provide the control authorities with all the information and documents required for appropriate controls to be carried out.

Art. 28 Powers of the control authorities

¹ The control authorities have the right to enter and inspect the business premises of persons obliged to provide information during normal working hours without prior notice and to examine the relevant documents. They shall confiscate incriminating material. In the event of suspicion of an offence, more rigorous provisions of procedural law are reserved.

² If necessary, they may in the course of their controls call in cantonal and communal police officers, the investigating authorities of the Customs Administration, and the Federal Intelligence Service.³²

³ They may process personal data in accordance with the objectives of this Act. Particularly sensitive personal data may be processed only where it relates to administrative or criminal proceedings and sanctions. Additional particularly sensitive personal data may be processed only if this is indispensable for handling the individual case.

⁴ They are obliged to preserve professional secrecy and to take all the precautionary measures required in their field to prevent industrial espionage.

³⁰ Amended by Art. 17 No 1 of the Embargo Act of 22 March 2002, in force since 1 Jan. 2003 (SR 946.231).

³¹ SR 946.231

³² Amended by No I 7 of the Ordinance of 4 Dec. 2009 on the Amendment of Legislation due to the establishment of the Federal Intelligence Service, in force since 1 Jan. 2010 (AS 2009 6921).

Art. 29 Jurisdiction and procedure

¹ The Federal Council shall designate the responsible agencies and regulate the procedural details. Border controls are the responsibility of the customs authorities.

² The Federal Council shall decide on applications that are of substantial importance to foreign or security policy. In addition, the provisions of the Federal Act on Administrative Procedure of 20 December 1968³³ govern the procedure.

³ The procedure for appeals against orders or rulings made in terms of this Act is governed by the general provisions on federal administrative procedure.

Art. 30 Central office

¹ The Federal Council shall designate a Central Office for combating illegal activities in connection with war material.

² The Central Office shall participate in enforcement and in the prevention of offences and shall report violations of the provisions of this Act to the competent prosecution authorities. Insofar as and for as long as its duties require, it is entitled to process personal data, including particularly sensitive personal data and personality profiles.³⁴

Art. 31 Fees

The licences provided for by this Act Fees are subject to fees. The Federal Council stipulates the rates.

Art. 32 Reporting to Parliament

The Federal Council shall report to the Control Committees of the Federal Parliament on the details relating to the export of war material.

Chapter 6: Criminal ProvisionsArt. 33 Offences against licensing and reporting obligations

¹ Any person who willfully commits any of the following acts is liable to a custodial sentence or a monetary penalty: ³⁵
