secretaries general, directors, deputy directors and members of the board or individuals who have been entrusted with equivalent functions, (politically exposed persons in international organisations)

² The family members and close associates of politically exposed persons are individuals who are closely connected to persons under paragraph 1 either through their family or for social or professional reasons.

³ The beneficial owners of an operating legal entity are the natural persons who ultimately control the legal entity in that they directly or indirectly, alone or in concert with third parties, hold at least 25 per cent of the capital or voting rights in the legal entity or otherwise control it. If the beneficial owners cannot be identified, the most senior member of the legal entity's executive body must be identified.

Chapter 2: Duties²²

Section 1: Financial Intermediaries Duty of Due Diligence²³

Art. 3 Verification of the identity of the customer

¹ When establishing a business relationship, the financial intermediary must verify the identity of the customer on the basis of a document of evidentiary value. Where the customer is a legal entity, the financial intermediary must acknowledge the provisions regulating the power to bind the legal entity, and verify the identity of the persons who enter into the business relationship on behalf of the legal entity.²⁴

² In the case of cash transactions with a customer whose identity has not yet been identified, the duty to verify identity applies only if one transaction, or two or more transactions that appear to be connected, involve a considerable financial value.

³ Insurance institutions must verify the identity of the customer if the amount of a single premium, the regular premium or the total of the premiums involves a considerable financial value.

²³ Amended by No 17 of the Federal Act of 12 Dec. 2014 on the Implementation of the 2012 revision of the Recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force, in force since 1 Jan. 2016 (AS 2015 1389; BBl 2014 605).

⁴ If in cases under paragraphs 2 or 3 there is any suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing, the identity of the customer must be verified even if the relevant amounts have not been reached.²⁵

⁵ FINMA, the Federal Gaming Board and the self-regulatory organisations shall determine what constitutes a considerable financial value within the meaning of paragraphs 2 and 3 in their respective fields and adjust such values as required.²⁶

Art. 4²⁷ Establishing the identity of the beneficial owner

² The financial intermediary must obtain a written declaration from the customer as to the identity of the individual who is the beneficial owner if:

- a. the customer is not the beneficial owner or if there is any doubt about the matter;
- b. the customer is a domiciliary company or an operating legal entity; or
- c. a cash transaction of considerable financial value in terms of Article 3 paragraph 2 is being carried out.

³ In the case of collective accounts or collective deposits, the financial intermediary must require the customer to provide a complete list of the beneficial owners and to give notice of any change to the list immediately.

Art. 5 Repetition of the verification of the identity of the customer or the establishment of the identity of the beneficial owner

² In the case of an insurance policy that may be surrendered, the insurance institution must also re-establish the identity of the beneficial owner if, in the event of a claim or the surrender of the policy, the person entitled to benefit is not the same person identified at the time that the insurance contract was concluded.

²⁵ Amended by No I 4 of the Federal Act of 3 Oct. 2008 on the Implementation of the revised Recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force, in force since 1 Feb. 2009 (AS 2009 361; BBl 2007 6269).

²⁶ Amended by Annex No 17 of the Financial Market Supervision Act of 22 June 2007, in force since 1 Jan. 2009 (AS 2008 5207; BBl 2006 2829).

²⁷ Amended by No I 7 of the Federal Act of 12 Dec. 2014 on the Implementation of the 2012 revision of the Recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force, in force since 1 Jan. 2016 (AS 2015 1389; BBl 2014 605).

Art. 6²⁸ Special duties of due diligence

¹ The financial intermediary is required to ascertain the nature and purpose of the business relationship wanted by the customer. The extent of the information that must be obtained, the hierarchical level at which the decision to enter into or continue a business relationship must be taken and the regularity of checks are determined by the risk represented by the customer.

² The financial intermediary must clarify the economic background and the purpose of a transaction or of a business relationship if:

- a. the transaction or the business relationship appears unusual, unless its legality is clear;
- b. there are indications that assets are the proceeds of a felony or an aggravated tax misdemeanour under Article 305^{bis} number 1^{bis} SCC²⁹ or are subject to the power of disposal of a criminal organisation (Art. 260^{ter} no 1 SCC) or serve the financing of terrorism (Art. 260^{quinquies} para. 1 SCC);
- c. the transaction or the business relationship carries a higher risk;
- d. the data on a customer, a beneficial owner or an authorised signatory in a business relationship or transaction are identical or very similar to the data provided to the financial intermediary by FINMA under Article 22a paragraph 2, by a self-regulatory organisation under Article 22a paragraph 2 letter c, or by the Federal Gaming Board under Article 22a paragraph 3.

³ Business relationships with foreign politically exposed persons and their family members or close associates in terms of Article 2a paragraph 2 are deemed in every case to be business relationships with a higher risk.

⁴ Business relationships with domestic politically exposed persons and politically exposed persons in international organisations and their family members or close associates in terms of Article 2a paragraph 2 are deemed when combined with one or more further risk criteria to be business relationships with a higher risk.

Art. 7 Duty to keep records

¹ The financial intermediary must keep records of transactions carried out and of clarifications required under this Act in such a manner that other specially qualified persons are able to make a reliable assessment of the transactions and business relationships and of compliance with the provisions of this Act.

² The financial intermediary must retain the records in such a manner as to be able to respond within a reasonable time to any requests made by the prosecution authorities for information or for the seizure of assets.

²⁸ Amended by No 17 of the Federal Act of 12 Dec. 2014 on the Implementation of the 2012 revision of the Recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force, in force since 1 Jan. 2016 (AS 2015 1389; BBl 2014 605).

³ After the termination of the business relationship or after completion of the transaction, the financial intermediary must retain the records for a minimum of ten years.

Art. 7a³⁰ Assets of low value

The financial intermediary may dispense with complying with the duties of due diligence (Art. 3–7) if the business relationship only involves assets of low value and there is no suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing.

Art. 8 Organisational measures

Financial intermediaries must take the measures that are required to prevent money laundering and terrorist financing in their field of business.³¹ They must in particular ensure that their staff receive adequate training and that checks are carried out.

Section 1a:³² Dealers’ Duties of Due Diligence

Art. 8a

¹ Dealers under Article 2 paragraph 1 letter b must fulfil the following duties if they accept more than 100,000 francs in cash in the course of a commercial transaction:

- a. verification of the identity of the customer (Art. 3 para. 1);
- b. establishing the identity of the beneficial owner (Art. 4 para. 1 and 2 let. a and b);
- c. duty to keep records (Art. 7).

² They must clarify the economic background and purpose of a transaction if:

- a. it appears unusual, unless its legality is clear;
- b. there are indications that assets are the proceeds of a felony or an aggravated tax misdemeanour under Article 305^{bis} number 1^{bis} SCC³³ or are subject to the power of disposal of a criminal organisation (Art. 260^{ter} no 1 SCC).

³ Dealers are subject to the duties under paragraphs 1 and 2 even if the cash payment is made in two or more instalments and the individual instalments are less than 100,000 francs, but when added together exceed this amount.

³⁰ Inserted by No I 4 of the Federal Act of 3 Oct. 2008 on the Implementation of the revised Recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force, in force since 1 Feb. 2009 (AS 2009 361; BBl 2007 6269).

³¹ Amended by No I 4 of the Federal Act of 3 Oct. 2008 on the Implementation of the revised Recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force, in force since 1 Feb. 2009 (AS 2009 361; BBl 2007 6269).

⁴ They are not subject to the duties if the payments that exceed 100,000 francs are made through a financial intermediary.

⁵ The Federal Council shall specify the details of the duties under paragraphs 1 and 2 and stipulate how they are to be fulfilled.

Section 2: Duties in the Event of a Suspicion of Money Laundering

Art. 9 Duty to report

¹ A financial intermediary must immediately file a report with the Money Laundering Reporting Office Switzerland (“the Reporting Office”) as defined in Article 23 if it:

- a. knows or has reasonable grounds to suspect that assets involved in the business relationship:
 1. are connected to an offence in terms of Article 260^{ter} Number 1 or 305^{bis} SCC³⁴,
 - 2.³⁵ are the proceeds of a felony or an aggravated tax misdemeanour under Article 305^{bis} number 1^{bis} SCC,
 3. are subject to the power of disposal of a criminal organisation, or
 4. serve the financing of terrorism (Art. 260^{quinquies} para. 1 SCC);
- b. terminates negotiations aimed at establishing a business relationship because of a reasonable suspicion as defined in letter a;
- c.³⁶ knows or has reason to assume based on the clarifications carried out under Article 6 paragraph 2 letter d that the data passed on by FINMA, the Federal Gaming Board or a self-regulatory organisation relating to a person or organisation corresponds to the data of a customer, a beneficial owner or an authorised signatory in a business relationship or transaction.³⁷

^{1bis} A dealer must immediately file a report with the Reporting Office if it knows or has reasonable grounds to suspect that cash payments made in the course of a commercial transaction:

- a. are connected to an offence under Article 260^{ter} number 1 or 305^{bis} SCC;
- b. are the proceeds of a felony or an aggravated tax misdemeanour under Article 305^{bis} number 1^{bis} SCC; or

c. are subject to the power of disposal of a criminal organisation.³⁸

^{1ter} The name of the financial intermediary or dealer must appear in any report in accordance with paragraph 1. The identity of the financial intermediary's or dealer's staff who are in charge of the case may be made anonymous in the report, provided it is guaranteed that the Reporting Office and the competent prosecution authority are able to contact them without delay.³⁹

² Lawyers and notaries are not subject to the duty to report insofar as they are bound in their activities by professional secrecy in terms of Article 321 SCC.

Art. 9a⁴⁰ Customer orders relating to the reported assets

During the analysis conducted by the Reporting Office under Article 23 paragraph 2, the financial intermediary shall execute customer orders relating to the assets reported under Article 9 paragraph 1 letter a of this Act or under Article 305^{ter} paragraph 2 SCC⁴¹.

Art. 10⁴² Freezing of assets

¹ The financial intermediary shall freeze the assets entrusted to it that are related to the report under Article 9 paragraph 1 letter a of this Act or under Article 305^{ter} paragraph 2 SCC⁴³ as soon as the Reporting Office informs it that it has forwarded the report to the prosecution authority.

^{1bis} It shall without delay freeze the assets entrusted to it that are related to the report under Article 9 paragraph 1 letter c.

² It shall continue to freeze the assets until it receives a ruling from the competent prosecution authority, but at most for five working days from the date on which the Reporting Office gives notice of forwarding the report under paragraph 1 or on which it filed the report with the Reporting Office under paragraph 1^{bis}.

Art. 10a⁴⁴ Prohibition of information

¹ The financial intermediary is prohibited from informing the persons concerned or third parties that it has filed a report under Article 9 of this Act or under Article 305^{ter} paragraph 2 SCC⁴⁵. The self-regulatory organisation to which the financial intermediary is affiliated is not regarded as a third party. The same applies to FINMA and the Federal Gaming Board in relation to the financial intermediaries under their supervision.⁴⁶

² If the financial intermediary itself is unable to freeze the assets, it may inform the financial intermediary that is able to do so and which is subject to this Act.

³ It may also inform another financial intermediary subject to this Act that a report has been submitted under Article 9, provided this is required in order to comply with duties under this Act and provided both financial intermediaries:⁴⁷

- a. provide joint services for one customer in connection with the management of that customer's assets on the basis of a contractual agreement to cooperate; or
- b. are part of the same corporate group.

⁴ The financial intermediary who has been informed on the basis of paragraph 2 or 3 is subject to the prohibition of information in paragraph 1.

⁵ The dealer is prohibited from informing the persons concerned or third parties that it has filed a report under Article 9.⁴⁸

⁶ The prohibition on providing information under paragraphs 1 and 5 does not apply to protecting personal interests in the context of a civil action or criminal or administrative proceedings.⁴⁹

⁴⁹ Inserted by No 17 of the Federal Act of 12 Dec. 2014 on the Implementation of the 2012 revision of the Recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force, in force since 1 Jan. 2016 (AS 2015 1389; BBl 2014 605).

Art. 11⁵⁰ Exclusion of criminal and civil liability

² This exclusion of prosecution and liability also applies to financial intermediaries that file a report under Article 305^{ter} paragraph 2 SCC⁵¹ or to self-regulatory organisations that file a report under Article 27 paragraph 4.

Section 3:⁵² Provision of InformationArt. 11a

¹ If the Reporting Office requires additional information in order to analyse a report that it has received in accordance with Article 9 of this Act or Article 305^{ter} paragraph 2 SCC⁵³, the financial intermediary making the report must on request provide such information that is in its possession.

² If, based on this analysis, it becomes apparent that in addition to the financial intermediary making the report, other financial intermediaries are or were involved in a transaction or business relationship, the financial intermediaries involved must on request provide the Reporting Office with all related information that is in their possession.

³ The Reporting Office shall specify a deadline for the provision of information by the financial intermediaries concerned under paragraphs 1 and 2.

⁴ The financial intermediaries are subject to the prohibition of information under Article 10a paragraph 1.

⁵ The exclusion of criminal and civil liability under Article 11 applies by analogy.

Chapter 3: SupervisionSection 1: General Provisions*Art. 12⁵⁴ Responsibility

The following bodies shall supervise compliance by financial intermediaries with the duties set out in Chapter 2:

 1. the recognised self-regulatory organisations (Art. 24),
 2. FINMA, where the financial intermediaries are not affiliated to a recognised self-regulatory organisation.

Art. 13⁵⁶Art. 14 Licensing and affiliation requirement

¹ Financial intermediaries within the meaning of Article 2 paragraph 3 that are not affiliated to a recognised self-regulatory organisation must request a licence from FINMA to carry on their business.⁵⁷

² The licence shall be granted only if:

- a. the financial intermediary is registered in the Commercial Register as a commercial undertaking or has been officially authorised to carry on business;
- b. the financial intermediary guarantees compliance with its duties in accordance with this Act by means of its internal regulations and organisation; and
- c. the financial intermediary itself, as well as the persons responsible for its administration and management, enjoy a good reputation and guarantee compliance with their duties in accordance with this Act.

³ Lawyers and notaries who act as financial intermediaries must affiliate to a self-regulatory organisation.

Art. 15⁵⁸ Dealers' duty to verify

¹ Dealers who must fulfil the duties of due diligence under Article 8a shall appoint an audit firm to verify that they are complying with their duties under Chapter Two.

² Auditors under Article 5 or audit firms under Article 6 of the Auditor Oversight Act of 16 December 2005⁵⁹ which have the required technical expertise and experience may be appointed as the audit firm.

Section 5: Self-Regulatory Organisations

Art. 24 Recognition

¹ Organisations are recognised as self-regulatory organisations if they:

- a. have regulations in accordance with Article 25;
- b. supervise their affiliated financial intermediaries with regard to compliance with their duties in terms of Chapter 2; and
- c. ensure that the persons and bodies they instruct to carry out inspections:⁹²
 1. possess the required specialist knowledge,
 2. provide the required guarantees that inspections will be carried out properly, and
 3. are independent of the management and administration of financial intermediaries being inspected;
- d.⁹³ guarantee that the audit companies instructed to carry out inspections meet the same requirements for authorisation as the audit companies for financial intermediaries directed subordinated to FINMA under Article 19a.

² The self-regulatory organisations of the licensed transport undertakings under the Public Transport Act of 20 March 2009⁹⁴ must be independent of their respective managements.⁹⁵

Art. 25 Regulations

² The regulations shall specify the duties of diligence of their affiliated financial intermediaries within the meaning of Chapter 2 and stipulate how these duties must be fulfilled.

³ They shall further stipulate:

- a. the requirements for the affiliation and exclusion of financial intermediaries;
- b. how compliance with the duties in terms of Chapter 2 is monitored;
- c. appropriate penalties.

Art. 26 Lists

¹ The self-regulatory organisations must maintain lists of their affiliated financial intermediaries and of persons to whom they refuse affiliation.

² They must notify FINMA of these lists and of any amendments thereto.⁹⁶

Art. 27⁹⁷ Exchange of information and duty to notify

² The self-regulatory organisations shall notify FINMA of:

- a. terminations of memberships;
- b. decisions on the refusal of affiliation;
- c. decisions to exclude and the reasons therefor;
- d. the opening of sanctions proceedings that may end in exclusion.

³ They shall provide FINMA with a report at least once each year on their activities in terms of this Act together with a list of decisions on sanctions issued during the period covered by the report.

⁴ They shall submit a report immediately to the Reporting Office if they have reasonable grounds to suspect that:

- a. a criminal offence under Article 260^{ter} no 1 or 305^{bis} of the Swiss Criminal Code⁹⁸ has been committed;
- b.⁹⁹ assets are the proceeds of a felony or an aggravated tax misdemeanour under Article 305^{bis} number 1^{bis} SCC;
- c. assets are subject to the power of disposal of a criminal organisation; or
- d.¹⁰⁰ assets serve the financing of terrorism (Art. 260^{quinquies} para. 1 SCC).

⁵ The duty under paragraph 4 does not apply if a report has already been filed by a financial intermediary affiliated to a self-regulatory organisation.

Art. 28¹⁰¹ Withdrawal of recognition

³ They shall be subject to the licensing requirement in Article 14, unless they affiliate to another self-regulatory organisation within two months.

⁴ Lawyers and notaries who act as financial intermediaries must affiliate within two months to another self-regulatory organisation if recognition has been withdrawn from the organisation to which they are affiliated.

Chapter 4: Administrative Assistance

Section 1: Cooperation among Domestic Authorities

Art. 29 Exchange of information among authorities¹⁰³

¹ FINMA, the Federal Gaming Board and the Reporting Office may provide each other with any information or documents required for the enforcement of this Act.¹⁰⁴

² The federal, cantonal and communal authorities shall if requested by the Reporting Office or the central offices of the Federal Criminal Police pass on to the Reporting Office or the said central offices all the data required for the analyses in relation to combating money laundering, its predicate offences, organised crime or the financing of terrorism. The data includes in particular financial information and other sensitive personal data and personality profiles obtained in criminal, administrative criminal and administrative proceedings, including those from pending proceedings.¹⁰⁵

^{2bis} The Reporting Office may provide, on a case by case basis, the authorities referred to in paragraph 2 with information in individual cases provided the authorities use the information exclusively for combating money laundering, its predicate offences, organised crime or the financing of terrorism. Article 30 paragraphs 2–5 applies by analogy.¹⁰⁶

^{2ter} The Reporting Office may only pass on information from foreign reporting offices with their express consent to the authorities referred to in paragraph 2 for the purposes mentioned in paragraph 2bis.¹⁰⁷

³ The Reporting Office shall inform FINMA and the Federal Gaming Board of the decisions of the cantonal prosecution authorities.¹⁰⁸

Art. 29a¹⁰⁹ Prosecution authorities

¹ The prosecution authorities shall notify the Reporting Office without delay of any pending proceedings connected with Articles 260^{ter} Number. 1, 260^{quinquies} paragraph 1, 305^{bis} and 305^{ter} paragraph 1 SCC¹¹⁰. They shall provide the Reporting Office without delay with judgements and decisions on the closure of proceedings, including the grounds therefor.

² They shall also notify the Reporting Office without delay of rulings that they have issued on the basis of a report from the Reporting Office.

³ They may provide FINMA and the Federal Gaming Board with any information and documents that they require in order to fulfil their duties, provided that this is not prejudicial to the criminal proceedings.

⁴ FINMA and the Federal Gaming Board shall coordinate any intervention in relation to a financial intermediary with the competent prosecution authorities. They shall consult with the competent prosecution authorities before passing on any information or documents received.

Section 2: Cooperation with Foreign Authorities

Art. 30¹¹¹ Cooperation with foreign reporting offices

¹ The Reporting Office may pass on the personal data and other information that are in its possession or that it may obtain under this Act to a foreign reporting office provided that office:

- a. guarantees that it will use the information solely for the purpose of analysis in the context of combating money laundering and its predicate offences, organised crime or terrorist financing;
- b. guarantees that it will reciprocate on receipt of a similar request from Switzerland;
- c. guarantees that official and professional secrecy will be preserved;
- d. guarantees that it will not pass on the information received to third parties without the express consent of the Reporting Office; and

² It may pass on the following information in particular:

- a.¹¹² the name of the financial intermediary or the dealer, provided the anonymity is preserved of the person making the report or who has complied with a duty to provide information under this Act;
- b. account holders, account numbers and account balances;
- c. beneficial owners;
- d. details of transactions.

³ Information is passed on in the form of a report.

⁴ The Reporting Office may consent to information being passed on by the foreign reporting office to a third authority provided the latter guarantees that:

- a. it will use the information solely:
 - 1. for the purpose of analysis in the context of combating money laundering and its predicate offences, organised crime or terrorist financing, or
 - 2. to institute criminal proceedings relating to money laundering and its predicate offences, organised crime or terrorist financing or to obtain evidence in response to a request for mutual assistance relating to such criminal proceedings;
- b. they will not use the information to prosecute offences that are not offences predicate to money laundering under Swiss law;
- c. they will not use the information in evidence; and
- d. they will preserve official or professional secrecy.

⁵ If the request to pass on the information to a foreign third authority concerns a matter that is the subject of criminal proceedings in Switzerland, the Reporting Office shall first obtain the consent of the public prosecutor's office responsible for the proceedings.

⁶ The Reporting Office is entitled to make more detailed arrangements on the modalities of cooperation with foreign reporting offices.

Art. 31¹¹³ Refusal to provide information
