Preamble

In the name of Almighty God!

The Swiss People and the Cantons,

mindful of their responsibility towards creation,

resolved to renew their alliance so as to strengthen liberty, democracy, independence and peace in a spirit of solidarity and openness towards the world, determined to live together with mutual consideration and respect for their diversity, conscious of their common achievements and their responsibility towards future generations, and in the knowledge that only those who use their freedom remain free, and that the strength of a people is measured by the well-being of its weakest members;

adopt the following Constitution¹:

Title 1: General Provisions

Art. 1 The Swiss Confederation

The People and the Cantons of Zurich, Bern, Lucerne, Uri, Schwyz, Obwalden and Nidwalden, Glarus, Zug, Fribourg, Solothurn, Basel Stadt and Basel Landschaft, Schaffhausen, Appenzell Ausserrhoden and Appenzell Innerrhoden, St. Gallen, Graubünden, Aargau, Thurgau, Ticino, Vaud, Valais, Neuchâtel, Geneva, and Jura form the Swiss Confederation.

Art. 2 Aims

¹ The Swiss Confederation shall protect the liberty and rights of the people and safeguard the independence and security of the country.

AS 2007 5225

¹ Adopted by the popular vote of 18 April 1999 (Federal Decree of 18 Dec. 1998, Federal Council Decree of 11 Aug. 1999 - AS 1999 2556; BBl 1997 I 1, 1999 162 5986).

² They have the right to leave or to enter Switzerland.

Art. 25 Protection against expulsion, extradition and deportation

¹ Swiss citizens may not be expelled from Switzerland and may only be extradited to a foreign authority with their consent.

² Refugees may not be deported or extradited to a state in which they will be persecuted.

³ No person may be deported to a state in which they face the threat of torture or any other form of cruel or inhumane treatment or punishment.

Art. 26 Guarantee of ownership

² The compulsory purchase of property and any restriction on ownership that is equivalent to compulsory purchase shall be compensated in full.

Art. 27 Economic freedom

² Economic freedom includes in particular the freedom to choose an occupation as well as the freedom to pursue a private economic activity.

Art. 28 Right to form professional associations

¹ Employees, employers and their organisations have the right to join together in order to protect their interests, to form associations and to join or not to join such associations.

² Disputes must wherever possible be resolved through negotiation or mediation.

⁴ The law may prohibit certain categories of person from taking strike action.

Art. 29 General procedural guarantees

¹ Every person has the right to equal and fair treatment in judicial and administrative proceedings and to have their case decided within a reasonable time.

² Each party to a case has the right to be heard.

³ Any person who does not have sufficient means has the right to free legal advice and assistance unless their case appears to have no prospect of success. If it is necessary in order to safeguard their rights, they also have the right to free legal representation in court.

Art. 29a³ Guarantee of access to the courts

In a legal dispute, every person has the right to have their case determined by a judicial authority. The Confederation and the Cantons may by law preclude the determination by the courts of certain exceptional categories of case.

Art. 30 Judicial proceedings

¹ Any person whose case falls to be judicially decided has the right to have their case heard by a legally constituted, competent, independent and impartial court. Ad hoc courts are prohibited.

² Unless otherwise provided by law, any person against whom civil proceedings have been raised has the right to have their case decided by a court within the jurisdiction in which they reside.

³ Unless the law provides otherwise, court hearings and the delivery of judgments shall be in public.

Art. 31 Deprivation of liberty

¹ No person may be deprived of their liberty other than in the circumstances and in the manner provided for by statutory law.

⁴ Any person who has been deprived of their liberty by a body other than a court has the right to have recourse to a court at any time. The court shall decide as quickly as possible on the legality of their detention.

Art. 33 Right of petition

¹ Every person has the right, without prejudice, to petition the authorities.

² The authorities must acknowledge receipt of such petitions.

Art. 34 Political rights

² The guarantee of political rights protects the freedom of the citizen to form an opinion and to give genuine expression to his or her will.

Art. 35 Upholding of fundamental rights

¹ Fundamental rights must be upheld throughout the legal system.

² Whoever acts on behalf of the state is bound by fundamental rights and is under a duty to contribute to their implementation.

³ The authorities shall ensure that fundamental rights, where appropriate, apply to relationships among private persons.

Art. 36 Restrictions on fundamental rights

² Restrictions on fundamental rights must be justified in the public interest or for the protection of the fundamental rights of others.

³ Any restrictions on fundamental rights must be proportionate.

⁴ The essence of fundamental rights is sacrosanct.

Chapter 2: Citizenship and Political Rights

Art. 37 Citizenship

¹ Any person who is a citizen of a commune and of the Canton to which that commune belongs is a Swiss citizen.

² No person may be given preferential treatment or suffer prejudice because of their citizenship. The foregoing does not apply to regulations on political rights in citizens' communes and corporations or to participation in the assets thereof, unless cantonal legislation provides otherwise.

Art. 38 Acquisition and deprivation of citizenship

¹ The Confederation shall regulate the acquisition and deprivation of citizenship by birth, marriage or adoption. It shall also regulate the deprivation of Swiss citizenship on other grounds, together with the reinstatement of citizenship.

² It shall legislate on the minimum requirements for the naturalisation of foreign nationals by the Cantons and grant naturalisation permits.

³ It shall enact simplified regulations on the naturalisation of stateless children.

Art. 39 Exercise of political rights

² Political rights are exercised in the commune in which a citizen resides, although the Confederation and the Cantons may provide for exceptions.

³ No person may exercise their political rights contemporaneously in more than one Canton.

⁴ A Canton may provide that a person newly registered as a resident may exercise the right to vote in cantonal and communal matters only after a waiting period of a maximum of three months of permanent settlement.

Art. 40 The Swiss abroad

² It shall legislate on the rights and obligations of the Swiss abroad, in particular in relation to the exercise of political rights in the Confederation, the fulfilment of the obligation to perform military or alternative service, welfare support and social security.

Chapter 3: Social Objectives

Art. 41

¹ The Confederation and the Cantons shall, as a complement to personal responsibility and private initiative, endeavour to ensure that:

- a. every person has access to social security;
- b. every person has access to the health care that they require;
- c. families are protected and encouraged as communities of adults and children;
- d. every person who is fit to work can earn their living by working under fair conditions;
- e. any person seeking accommodation for themselves and their family can find suitable accommodation on reasonable terms;
- f. children and young people as well as persons of employable age can obtain an education and undergo basic and advanced training in accordance with their abilities;
- g. children and young people are encouraged to develop into independent and socially responsible people and are supported in their social, cultural and political integration.

² The Confederation and Cantons shall endeavour to ensure that every person is protected against the economic consequences of old-age, invalidity, illness, accident, unemployment, maternity, being orphaned and being widowed.

³ They shall endeavour to achieve these social objectives within the scope of their constitutional powers and the resources available to them.

⁴ No direct right to state benefits may be established on the basis of these social objectives.

Title 3 : Confederation, Cantons and Communes

Chapter 1: Relations between the Confederation and the Cantons

Section 1: Duties of the Confederation and the Cantons

Art. 42 Duties of the Confederation

¹ The Confederation shall fulfil the duties that are assigned to it by Federal Constitution.

² ...⁴

⁴ Repealed by the popular vote on 28 Nov. 2004, with effect from 1 Jan. 2008 (Federal Decree of 3 Oct. 2003, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 7 Nov. 2007 – AS 2007 5765 5771; BBl 2002 2291, 2003 6591, 2005 951).

Art. 43 Duties of the Cantons

The Cantons decide on the duties that they must fulfil within the scope of their powers.

Art. 43a⁵ Principles for the allocation and fulfilment of state tasks

¹ The Confederation only undertakes tasks that the Cantons are unable to perform or which require uniform regulation by the Confederation.

² The collective body that benefits from a public service bears the costs thereof.

³ The collective body that bears the costs of a public service may decide on the nature of that service.

⁴ Universally provided services must be made available to every person in a comparable manner.

⁵ State tasks must be fulfilled economically and in accordance with demand.

Section 2: Cooperation between the Confederation and the CantonsArt. 44 Principles

¹ The Confederation and the Cantons shall support each other in the fulfilment of their duties and shall generally cooperate with each other.

² They owe each other a duty of consideration and support. They shall provide each other with administrative assistance and mutual judicial assistance.

³ Disputes between Cantons or between Cantons and the Confederation shall wherever possible be resolved by negotiation or mediation.

Art. 45 Participation in federal decision-making

¹ In the cases specified by the Federal Constitution, the Cantons shall participate in the federal decision making process, and in particular in the legislative process.

² The Confederation shall inform the Cantons of its intentions fully and in good time. It shall consult the Cantons where their interests are affected.

Art. 46 Implementation of federal law

¹ The Cantons shall implement federal law in accordance with the Federal Constitution and federal legislation.

⁵ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov 2004, in force since 1 Jan. 2008 (Federal Council Decree of 3 Oct 2003, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 7 Nov. 2007 – AS 2007 5765 5771; BBl 2002 2291, 2003 6591, 2005 951).

² The Confederation and the Cantons may together agree that the Cantons should achieve specific goals in the implementation of federal law and may to this end conduct programmes that receive financial support from the Confederation.⁶

³ The Confederation shall allow the Cantons all possible discretion to organise their own affairs and shall take account of cantonal particularities.⁷

Art. 47 Autonomy of the Cantons

¹ The Confederation shall respect the autonomy of the Cantons.

² It shall leave the Cantons sufficient tasks of their own and respect their organisational autonomy. It shall leave the Cantons with sufficient sources of finance and contribute towards ensuring that they have the financial resources required to fulfil their tasks.⁸

Art. 48 Intercantonal agreements

¹ The Cantons may enter into agreements with each other and establish common organisations and institutions. In particular, they may jointly undertake tasks of regional importance together.

² The Confederation may participate in such organisations or institutions within the scope of its powers.

⁴ The Cantons may by intercantonal agreement authorise intercantonal bodies to issue legislative provisions that implement an intercantonal agreement, provided the agreement:

- a. has been approved under the same procedure that applies to other legislation;
- b. determines the basic content of the provisions.⁹

⁶ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov 2004, in force since 1 Jan. 2008 (Federal Council Decree of 3 Oct 2003, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 7 Nov. 2007 – AS 2007 5765 5771; BBI 2002 2291, 2003 6591, 2005 951).

⁷ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov 2004, in force since 1 Jan. 2008 (Federal Council Decree of 3 Oct 2003, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 7 Nov. 2007 – AS 2007 5765 5771; BBI 2002 2291, 2003 6591, 2005 951).

⁸ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov 2004, in force since 1 Jan. 2008 (Federal Council Decree of 3 Oct 2003, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 7 Nov. 2007 – AS 2007 5765 5771; BBI 2002 2291, 2003 6591, 2005 951).

⁹ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov 2004, in force since 1 Jan. 2008 (Federal Council Decree of 3 Oct 2003, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 7 Nov. 2007 – AS 2007 5765 5771; BBI 2002 2291, 2003 6591, 2005 951).

⁵ The Cantons shall comply with intercantonal law.¹⁰

Art. 48a¹¹ Declaration of general application and requirement of participation

¹ At the request of interested Cantons, the Confederation may declare intercantonal agreements to be generally binding or require Cantons to participate in intercantonal agreements in the following fields:

- a. the execution of criminal penalties and measures;
- b.¹² school education in the matters specified in Article 62 paragraph 4;
- c.¹³ cantonal institutions of higher education;
- d. cultural institutions of supra-regional importance;
- e. waste management;
- f. waste water treatment;
- g. urban transport;
- h. advanced medical science and specialist clinics;
- i. institutions for the rehabilitation and care of invalids.

² A declaration of general application is made in the form of a federal decree.

³ The law shall specify the requirements for a declaration of general application and for a participation requirement and regulate the procedure.

Art. 49 Precedence of and compliance with federal law

¹ Federal law takes precedence over any conflicting provision of cantonal law.

² The Confederation shall ensure that the Cantons comply with federal law.

¹⁰ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov 2004, in force since 1 Jan. 2008 (Federal Council Decree of 3 Oct 2003, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 7 Nov. 2007 – AS 2007 5765 5771; BBl 2002 2291, 2003 6591, 2005 951).

¹¹ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov 2004, in force since 1 Jan. 2008 (Federal Council Decree of 3 Oct 2003, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 7 Nov. 2007 – AS 2007 5765 5771; BBl 2002 2291, 2003 6591, 2005 951).

¹² Adopted by the popular vote of 21 May 2006 (Federal Decree of 16 Dec. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 27 July 2006 – AS 2006 3033; BBl 2005 5479 5547 7273, 2006 6725).

¹³ Adopted by the popular vote of 21 May 2006 (Federal Decree of 16 Dec. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 27 July 2006 – AS 2006 3033; BBl 2005 5479 5547 7273, 2006 6725).

Section 3: Communes

² The Confederation shall take account in its activities of the possible consequences for the communes.

³ In doing so, it shall take account of the special position of the cities and urban areas as well as the mountain regions.

Section 4: Federal Guarantees

Art. 51 Cantonal constitutions

² Each cantonal constitution shall require the guarantee of the Confederation. The Confederation shall guarantee a constitution provided it is not contrary to federal law.

Art. 52 Constitutional order

¹ The Confederation shall protect the constitutional order of the Cantons.

² It shall intervene when public order in a Canton is disrupted or under threat and the Canton in question is not able to maintain order alone or with the aid of other Cantons.

Art. 53 Number and territory of the Cantons

² Any change in the number of Cantons requires the consent of the citizens and the Cantons concerned together with the consent of the People and the Cantons.

⁴ Inter-cantonal boundary adjustments may be made by agreement between the Cantons concerned.

Chapter 2: Powers

Section 1: Relations with Foreign States

Art. 54 Foreign relations

- ¹ Foreign relations are the responsibility of the Confederation.
- ² The Confederation shall ensure that the independence of Switzerland and its welfare is safeguarded; it shall in particular assist in the alleviation of need and poverty in the world and promote respect for human rights and democracy, the peaceful co-existence of peoples as well as the conservation of natural resources.
- ³ It shall respect the powers of the Cantons and protect their interests.

Art. 55 Participation of the Cantons in foreign policy decisions

- ¹ The Cantons shall be consulted on foreign policy decisions that affect their powers or their essential interests.
- ² The Confederation shall inform the Cantons fully and in good time and shall consult with them.
- ³ The views of the Cantons are of particular importance if their powers are affected. In such cases, the Cantons shall participate in international negotiations in an appropriate manner.

Art. 56 Relations between the Cantons and foreign states

- ¹ A Canton may conclude treaties with foreign states on matters that lie within the scope of its powers.
- ² Such treaties must not conflict with the law or the interests of the Confederation, or with the law of any other Cantons. The Canton must inform the Confederation before concluding such a treaty.
- ³ A Canton may deal directly with lower ranking foreign authorities; in other cases, the Confederation shall conduct relations with foreign states on behalf of a Canton.

Section 2: Security, National Defence, Civil Defence

Art. 57 Security

- ¹ The Confederation and the Cantons shall within the scope of their powers ensure the security of the country and the protection of the population.
- ² They shall coordinate their efforts in the area of internal security.

Art. 58 Armed forces

- ¹ Switzerland shall have armed forces. In principle, the armed forces shall be organised as a militia.

² The armed forces serve to prevent war and to maintain peace; they defend the country and its population. They shall support the civilian authorities in safeguarding the country against serious threats to internal security and in dealing with exceptional situations. Further duties may be provided for by law.

³ The deployment of the armed forces is the responsibility of the Confederation.¹⁴

Art. 59 Military service and alternative service

¹ Every Swiss man is required to do military service. Alternative civilian service shall be provided for by law.

² Military service is voluntary for Swiss women.

⁴ The Confederation shall legislate for fair compensation for loss of income.

⁵ Persons who suffer damage to their health or lose their lives while doing military or alternative civilian service are entitled to appropriate support from the Confederation, whether for themselves or for their next of kin.

Art. 60 Armed forces organisation, training and equipment

¹ Armed forces legislation, together with the organisation, training and equipment of the armed forces, is the responsibility of the Confederation.

² ...¹⁵.

³ The Confederation may, in return for appropriate compensation, take over the running of cantonal military installations

Art. 61 Civil defence

¹ The legislation on the civil defence of persons and property against the effects of armed conflicts is the responsibility of the Confederation.

² The Confederation shall legislate on the deployment of civil defence units in the event of disasters and emergencies.

³ It may declare civil defence service to be compulsory for men. For women, such service is voluntary.

⁴ The Confederation shall legislate on fair compensation for loss of income.

¹⁴ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov 2004, in force since 1 Jan. 2008 (Federal Council Decree of 3 Oct 2003, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 7 Nov. 2007 – AS 2007 5765 5771; BBl 2002 2291, 2003 6591, 2005 951).

¹⁵ Repealed by the popular vote on 28 Nov 2004, with effect from 1 Jan. 2008 (Federal Council Decree of 3 Oct 2003, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 7 Nov. 2007 – AS 2007 5765 5771; BBl 2002 2291, 2003 6591, 2005 951).

⁵ Persons who suffer damage to their health or lose their lives while doing civil defence service are entitled to appropriate support from the Confederation, whether for themselves or for their next of kin.

Section 3: Education, Research and Culture

Art. 61a¹⁶ Swiss Education Area

¹ The Confederation and the Cantons shall, within the scope of their powers, jointly ensure the high quality and accessibility of the Swiss Education Area.

² They shall coordinate their efforts and ensure their cooperation through joint administrative bodies and other measures.

³ They shall ensure in the fulfilment of their duties¹⁷ that general and vocational courses of study achieve equal recognition in society.

Art. 62 School education

¹ The Cantons are responsible for the system of school education.

² They shall ensure the provision of an adequate basic education that is available to all children. Basic education is mandatory and is managed or supervised by the state. At state schools it is free of charge.¹⁸

⁴ Where harmonisation of school education is not achieved by means of coordination in the areas of school entry age and compulsory school attendance, the duration and objectives of levels of education, and the transition for one level to another, as well as the recognition of qualifications, the Confederation shall issue regulations to achieve such harmonisation.²⁰

⁵ The Confederation shall regulate the start of the school year.²¹

³³ Adopted by the popular vote of 23 Sept. 2012, in force since 23 Sept. 2012 (Federal Decree of 15 March 2012, Federal Council Decree of 29 Jan. 2013 – AS 2013 435; BBI 2009 613, 2010 1, 2012 3443 6899, 2013 1135).

² The Cantons shall decide on their official languages. In order to preserve harmony between linguistic communities, the Cantons shall respect the traditional territorial distribution of languages and take account of indigenous linguistic minorities.

³ The Confederation and the Cantons shall encourage understanding and exchange between the linguistic communities.

⁴ The Confederation shall support the plurilingual Cantons in the fulfilment of their special duties.

⁵ The Confederation shall support measures by the Cantons of Graubünden and Ticino to preserve and promote the Romansh and the Italian languages.

Art. 71 Cinema

² It may issue regulations to promote the diversity and the quality of the cinematographic works that are offered.

Art. 72 Church and state

¹ The regulation of the relationship between the church and the state is the responsibility of the Cantons.

² The Confederation and the Cantons may within the scope of their powers take measures to preserve public peace between the members of different religious communities.

³ The construction of minarets is prohibited.³⁴

Section 4: Environment and Spatial Planning

Art. 73 Sustainable development

The Confederation and the Cantons shall endeavour to achieve a balanced and sustainable relationship between nature and its capacity to renew itself and the demands placed on it by the population.

Art. 74 Protection of the environment

¹ The Confederation shall legislate on the protection of the population and its natural environment against damage or nuisance.

² It shall ensure that such damage or nuisance is avoided. The costs of avoiding or eliminating such damage or nuisance are borne by those responsible for causing it.

³ The Cantons are responsible for the implementation of the relevant federal regulations, except where the law reserves this duty for the Confederation.

Art. 75 Spatial planning

¹ The Confederation shall lay down principles on spatial planning. These principles are binding on the Cantons and serve to ensure the appropriate and economic use of the land and its properly ordered settlement.

² The Confederation shall encourage and coordinate the efforts of the Cantons and shall cooperate with them.

³ Confederation and Cantons shall take account of the requirements of spatial planning in fulfilling their duties.

Art. 75a³⁵ National Land Survey

² The Confederation shall issue regulations on official surveying.

³ It may issue regulations on the harmonisation of official information relating to the land.

Art. 75b³⁶ Second homes*

² The law shall require communes to publish their first home percentage plan and a detailed report on its implementation every year.

Art. 76 Water

¹ The Confederation shall within the scope of its powers ensure the economic use and the protection of water resources and provide protection against the harmful effects of water.

² It shall lay down principles on the conservation and exploitation of water resources, the use of water for the production of energy and for cooling purposes, as well as on other measures affecting the water-cycle.

³⁵ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov 2004, in force since 1 Jan. 2008 (Federal Council Decree of 3 Oct 2003, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 7 Nov. 2007 – AS 2007 5765 5771; BBl 2002 2291, 2003 6591, 2005 951).

³⁶ Adopted by the popular vote on 11 March 2012, in force since 11 March 2012 (Federal Decree of 17 June 2011, Federal Council Decree of 20 June 2012 – AS 2012 3627; BBl 2008 1113 8757, 2011 4825, 2012 6623).

* With transitional provision.

⁴ The Cantons shall manage their water resources. They may levy charges for the use of water, subject to the limits imposed by federal legislation. The Confederation has the right to use water for its transport operations subject to payment of a charge and compensation.

⁶ The Confederation shall take account of the concerns of the Cantons where the water originates in fulfilling its duties.

Art. 77 Forests

¹ The Confederation shall ensure that the forests are able to fulfil their protective, commercial and public amenity functions.

² It shall lay down principles on the protection of the forests.

³ It shall encourage measures for the conservation of the forests.

Art. 78 Protection of natural and cultural heritage

⁴ It shall legislate on the protection of animal and plant life and on the preservation of their natural habitats and their diversity. It shall protect endangered species from extinction.

⁵ Moors and wetlands of special beauty and national importance shall be preserved. No buildings may be built on them and no changes may be made to the land, except for the construction of facilities that serve the protection of the moors or wetlands or their continued use for agricultural purposes.

Art. 79 Fishing and hunting

The Confederation shall lay down principles on fishing and hunting and in particular on the preservation of the diversity of fish species, wild mammals and birds.

Art. 80 Protection of animals

Art. 88 Footpaths and hiking trails

¹ The Confederation shall lay down principles with regard to the network of footpaths and hiking trails.

² It may support and coordinate cantonal measures to construct and maintain such networks.

³ It shall take account of the network of footpaths and hiking trails in the fulfilment of its duties and shall replace paths and trails that it has to close.

Section 6: Energy and CommunicationsArt. 89 Energy policy

¹ Within the scope of their powers, the Confederation and Cantons shall endeavour to ensure a sufficient, diverse, safe, economic and environmentally sustainable energy supply as well as the economic and efficient use of energy.

² The Confederation shall establish principles on the use of local and renewable energy sources and on the economic and efficient use of energy.

³ The Confederation shall legislate on the use of energy by installations, vehicles and appliances. It shall encourage the development of energy technologies, in particular in the fields of saving energy and the renewable energy sources.

⁴ The Cantons shall be primarily responsible for measures relating to the use of energy in buildings.

⁵ The Confederation shall take account in its energy policy of the efforts made by the Cantons, the communes and the business community; it shall take account of the conditions in the individual regions of the country and the limitations of what is economically feasible.

Art. 90 Nuclear energy*

The Confederation is responsible for legislation in the field of nuclear energy.

Art. 91 Transport of energy

¹ The Confederation shall legislate on the transport and the supply of electrical energy.

² The Confederation is responsible for legislation on transmission and distribution systems for the transport of liquid or gaseous fuels.

* With transitional provision

Art. 92 Postal and telecommunications services

¹ The Confederation is responsible for postal and telecommunications services.

² The Confederation shall ensure the adequate, universal and reasonably priced provision of postal and telecommunications services in all regions of the country. The rates shall be fixed according to standard principles.

Art. 93 Radio and television

¹ The Confederation is responsible for legislation on radio and television as well as on other forms of public broadcasting of features and information.

² Radio and television shall contribute to education and cultural development, to the free shaping of opinion and to entertainment. They shall take account of the particularities of the country and the needs of the Cantons. They shall present events accurately and allow a diversity of opinions to be expressed appropriately.

³ The independence of radio and television as well as their autonomy in deciding on programming is guaranteed.

⁴ Account must be taken of the role and duties of other media, in particular the press.

⁵ Complaints about programmes may be submitted to an independent complaints authority.

Section 7: The EconomyArt. 94 Principles of the economic system

¹ The Confederation and the Cantons shall abide by the principle of economic freedom.

² They shall safeguard the interests of the Swiss economy as a whole and, together with the private sector, shall contribute to the welfare and economic security of the population.

³ They shall endeavour within the scope of their powers to create favourable general conditions for the private sector.

⁴ Any divergence from the principle of economic freedom, and in particular measures designed to restrain competition, shall be permitted only if they are provided for in the Federal Constitution or based on cantonal monopoly rights.

Art. 95 Professional activities in the private sector*

¹ The Confederation shall take measures to achieve balanced economic development, and in particular to prevent and combat unemployment and inflation.

² It shall take account of economic development in individual regions of the country. It shall cooperate with the Cantons and the business community.

⁴ The Confederation, the Cantons and the communes shall take account of the economic situation in their revenue and expenditure policies.

⁶ The Confederation may oblige businesses to accumulate reserves for the creation of jobs; it shall for this purpose grant tax concessions and may require the Cantons to do the same. Following the release of the reserves, businesses shall be free to decide how the funds are applied within the scope of the uses permitted by law.

Art. 101 Foreign economic policy

² In special cases, it may take measures to protect the domestic economy. In doing so, it may if necessary depart from the principle of economic freedom.

Art. 102 National economic supply*

¹ The Confederation shall ensure that the country is supplied with essential goods and services in the event of the threat of politico-military strife or war, or of severe shortages that the economy cannot by itself counteract. It shall take precautionary measures to address these matters.

² In exercising its powers under this Article, it may if necessary depart from the principle of economic freedom.

Art. 103 Structural policy*

The Confederation may support regions of the country that are under economic threat and promote specific economic sectors and professions, if reasonable self-help measures are insufficient to ensure their existence. In exercising its powers under this Article, it may if necessary depart from the principle of economic freedom.

Art. 104 Agriculture

¹ The Confederation shall ensure that agricultural sector, by means of a sustainable and market oriented production policy, makes an essential contribution towards:

- a. the reliable provision of the population with foodstuffs;
- b. the conservation of natural resources and the upkeep of the countryside;
- c. decentralised population settlement of the country.

² In addition to the self-help measures that can reasonably be expected in the agriculture sector and if necessary in derogation from the principle of economic freedom, the Confederation shall support farms that cultivate the land.

³ The Confederation shall organise measures in such a manner that the agricultural sector fulfils its multi-functional duties. It has in particular the following powers and duties:

- a. supplementing revenues from agriculture by means of direct subsidies in order to achieve of fair and adequate remuneration for the services provided, subject to proof of compliance with ecological requirements.

* With transitional provision

- b. encouraging by means of economically advantageous incentives methods of production that are specifically near-natural and respectful of both the environment and livestock.

- e. at its discretion, encouraging agricultural research, counselling and education and subsidise investments.
- f. at its discretion, legislating on the consolidation of agricultural property holdings.

⁴ For these purposes, the Confederation shall provide both funds earmarked for the agricultural sector and general federal funds.

Art. 105 Alcohol

The legislation on the manufacture, import, rectification and sale of alcohol obtained by distillation is the responsibility of the Confederation. The Confederation shall in particular take account of the harmful effects of alcohol consumption.

Art. 106⁴⁸ Gambling

¹ The Confederation shall legislate on gambling; in doing so it shall take account of cantonal interests.

² A licence from the Confederation is required in order to establish and operate a casino. In granting such a licence, the Confederation shall take account of regional circumstances. It shall levy a revenue-related tax on casinos; this tax must not exceed 80 per cent of the gross revenues from gambling. It shall be used to fund the Old-age, Survivors' and Invalidity Insurance.

³ The cantons are responsible for granting licences for and supervising the following:

- a. gambling activities that are available to an unlimited number of people, are offered at more than one location and which are based on the same random draw or a similar procedure; the foregoing does not apply to the jackpot systems in casinos;
- b. betting on sports;
- c. games of skill.

⁴ Paragraphs 2 and 3 also apply to telecommunications-based gambling.

⁴⁸ Adopted by the popular vote on 11 March 2012, in force since 11 March 2012 (Federal Decree of 29 Sept. 2011, Federal Council Decree of 20 June 2012 – AS 2012 3629; BBl 2009 7019, 2010 7961, 2012 6623).

⁵ The Confederation and the cantons shall take account of the dangers of gambling. They shall ensure that appropriate protection is provided through legislation and supervisory measures and in doing so shall take account of the different characteristics of the games and the form and location of the gambling opportunity offered.

⁶ The cantons shall ensure that the net revenues from gambling in accordance with paragraph 3 letters a and b are used in their entirety for charitable purposes, in particular in the fields of culture, social projects and sport.

⁷ The Confederation and the cantons shall coordinate their efforts to fulfil their tasks. To this end the law shall establish a joint body, one half of whose members shall be from the federal implementing bodies and the other half from the cantonal implementing bodies.

Art. 112b⁵⁴ Promoting the rehabilitation of people eligible for invalidity benefits*

¹ The Confederation shall encourage the rehabilitation of people eligible for invalidity benefits by providing cash and non-cash benefits. For this purpose, it may use resources from the Invalidity Insurance.

² The Cantons shall encourage the rehabilitation of people eligible for invalidity benefits, in particular through contributions to the construction and running of institutions that provide accommodation and work.

³ The law determines the goals of rehabilitation and the principles and criteria.

Art. 112c⁵⁵ Aid for elderly people and people with disabilities*

¹ The Cantons shall provide for assistance and care in the home for elderly people and people with disabilities.

² The Confederation shall support national efforts for the benefit of elderly people and people with disabilities. For this purpose, it may use resources from the Old-age, Survivors and Invalidity Insurance.

Art. 113 Occupational pension scheme*

¹ The Confederation shall legislate for an occupational pension scheme.

² In doing so, it shall adhere to the following principles:

- a. the occupational pension scheme, together with the Old-age, Survivors' and Invalidity Insurance, enables the insured person to maintain his or her previous lifestyle in an appropriate manner.
- b. the occupational pension scheme is compulsory for employees; the law may provide for exceptions.
- c. employers shall insure their employees with a pension institution; if required, the Confederation shall make it possible for employees to be insured with a federal pension institution.
- d. self-employed persons may insure themselves on a voluntary basis with a pension institution.
- e. for specific groups of self-employed persons, the Confederation may declare the occupational pension scheme to be compulsory, either in general terms or for individual risks only.

⁵⁴ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov 2004, in force since 1 Jan. 2008 (Federal Council Decree of 3 Oct 2003, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 7 Nov. 2007 – AS 2007 5765 5771; BBl 2002 2291, 2003 6591, 2005 951).

* With transitional provision.

³ The occupation pension scheme is funded from the contributions of those insured, whereby employers must pay a minimum of one half of the contributions of their employees.

⁴ Pension schemes must satisfy the minimum requirements under federal law; the Confederation may provide for national measures to resolve particular difficulties.

Art. 114 Unemployment insurance

² In doing so, it shall adhere to the following principles:

- a. the insurance guarantees appropriate compensation for loss of earnings and supports measures to prevent and combat unemployment.
- b. the insurance is compulsory for employees; the law may provide for exceptions.
- c. self-employed persons may insure themselves voluntarily.

³ The insurance is funded by the contributions from those insured, whereby one half of the contributions of employees shall be paid by their employers.

⁴ Confederation and Cantons shall provide subsidies in extraordinary circumstances.

⁵ The Confederation may enact regulations on social assistance for the unemployed.

Art. 115 Support for persons in need

Persons in need shall be supported by their Canton of residence. The Confederation regulates exceptions and powers.

Art. 116 Child allowances and maternity insurance

¹ In the fulfilment of its duties, the Confederation shall take account of the needs of families. It may support measures for the protection of families.

² It may issue regulations on child allowances and operate a federal family allowances compensation fund.

³ It shall establish a maternity insurance scheme. It may also require persons who cannot benefit from that insurance to make contributions.

⁴ The Confederation may declare participation in a family allowances compensation fund and the maternity insurance scheme to be compulsory, either in general terms or for individual sections of the population, and make its subsidies dependent on appropriate subsidies being made by the Cantons.

Art. 117 Health and accident insurance

¹ The Confederation shall legislate on health and accident insurance.

² It may declare health and the accident insurance to be compulsory, either in general terms or for individual sections of the population.

Art. 117a⁵⁶ Primary medical care

¹ The Confederation and the Cantons shall within the scope of their powers ensure the adequate provision of high quality primary medical care that is accessible to all. They shall recognise and promote family medicine as an essential component of primary care.

² The Confederation shall legislate on:

- a. basic and continuing education and training for family medicine professions and the requirements for practising these professions;
- b. appropriate remuneration for family medicine services.

Art. 118 Health protection

¹ The Confederation shall, within the limits of its powers, take measures for the protection of health.

² It shall legislate on:

- a. the use of foodstuffs as well as therapeutic products, narcotics, organisms, chemicals and items that may be dangerous to health;
- b. the combating of communicable, widespread or particularly dangerous human and animal diseases;

⁵⁸ Adopted by the popular vote on 7 March 2010, in force since 7 March 2010 (Federal Decree of 25 Sept. 2009, Federal Council Decree of 15 April 2010 – AS 2010 1569; BBI 2007 6713, 2009 6649, 2010 2625).

- a. It is a requirement for any research project that the participants or their legal representatives have given their informed consent. The law may provide for exceptions. A refusal is binding in every case.
- b. The risks and stress for the participants must not be disproportionate to the benefits of the research project.
- c. A research project involving persons lacking the capacity to consent may be conducted only if findings of equal value cannot be obtained from research involving persons who have the capacity to consent. If the research project is not expected to bring any immediate benefit to the persons lacking the capacity to consent, the risks and stress must be minimal.
- d. An independent assessment of the research project must have determined that the safety of the participants is guaranteed.

Art. 119 Reproductive medicine and gene technology involving human beings

¹ Human beings shall be protected against the misuse of reproductive medicine and gene technology.

² The Confederation shall legislate on the use of human reproductive and genetic material. In doing so, it shall ensure the protection of human dignity, privacy and the family and shall adhere in particular to the following principles:

- a. all forms of cloning and interference with the genetic material of human reproductive cells and embryos are unlawful.
- b. non-human reproductive and genetic material may neither be introduced into nor combined with human reproductive material.
- c. the procedure for medically-assisted reproduction may be used only if infertility or the risk of transmitting a serious illness cannot otherwise be overcome, but not in order to conceive a child with specific characteristics or to further research; the fertilisation of human egg cells outside a woman's body is permitted only under the conditions laid down by the law; no more human egg cells may be developed into embryos outside a woman's body than are capable of being immediately implanted into her.
- d. the donation of embryos and all forms of surrogate motherhood are unlawful.
- e. the trade in human reproductive material and in products obtained from embryos is prohibited.
- f. the genetic material of a person may be analysed, registered or made public only with the consent of the person concerned or if the law so provides.
- g. every person shall have access to data relating to their ancestry.

Art. 119a⁵⁹ Transplant medicine

¹ The Confederation shall legislate in the field of organ, tissue and cell transplants. In doing so, it shall ensure the protection of human dignity, privacy and health.

² It shall in particular lay down criteria for the fair allocation of organs.

³ Any donation of human organs, tissue and cells must be free of charge. The trade in human organs is prohibited.

Art. 120 Non-human gene technology*

¹ Human beings and their environment shall be protected against the misuse of gene technology.

² The Confederation shall legislate on the use of reproductive and genetic material from animals, plants and other organisms. In doing so, it shall take account of the dignity of living beings as well as the safety of human beings, animals and the environment, and shall protect the genetic diversity of animal and plant species.

Section 9: Residence and Permanent Settlement of Foreign NationalsArt. 121 Legislation on foreign nationals and asylum*⁶⁰

¹ The Confederation is responsible for legislation on entry to and exit from Switzerland, the residence and the permanent settlement of foreign nationals and on the granting of asylum.

² Foreign nationals may be expelled from Switzerland if they pose a risk to the security of the country.

³ Irrespective of their status under the law on foreign nationals, foreign nationals shall lose their right of residence and all other legal rights to remain in Switzerland if they:

The Confederation is responsible for legislation on weights and measures.

Chapter 3: Financial System

Art. 126⁷² Financial management

¹ The Confederation shall maintain its income and expenditure in balance over time.

² The ceiling for total expenditure that is to be approved in the budget is based on the expected income after taking account of the economic situation.

⁷⁰ Adopted by the popular vote on 30 Nov. 2008, in force since 30 Nov. 2008 (Federal Decree of 13 June 2008, Federal Council Decree of 23 Jan. 2009 – AS 2009 471; BBl 2006 3657, 2007 5369, 2008 5245, 2009 605).

⁷¹ Adopted by the popular vote on 18 May 2014, in force since 18 May 2014 (Federal Council Decree of 20 Feb. 2014 – AS 2014 2771; BBl 2009 7021, 2011 4435, 2012 8819, 2014 6349 1779).

⁷² Adopted by the popular vote on 2 Dec. 2001 (Federal Decree of 22 June 2001, Federal Council Decree of 4 Feb. 2002 – AS 2002 241; BBl 2000 4653, 2001 2387 2878, 2002 1209).

³ Exceptional financial requirements may justify an appropriate increase in the ceiling in terms of paragraph 2. The Federal Assembly shall decide on any increase in accordance with Article 159 paragraph 3 letter c.

⁴ If the total expenditure in the federal accounts exceeds the ceiling in terms of paragraphs 2 or 3, compensation for this additional expenditure must be made in subsequent years.

⁵ The details are regulated by law.

Art. 127 Principles of taxation

¹ The main structural features of any tax, in particular those liable to pay tax, the object of the tax and its assessment, are regulated by statutory law.

² Provided the nature of the tax permits it, the principles of universality and uniformity of taxation as well as the principle of taxation according to ability to pay are applied.

³ Intercantonal double taxation is prohibited. The Confederation shall take the measures required.

Art. 128 Direct taxes*

¹ The Confederation may levy a direct tax:

- a. of a maximum of 11.5 per cent on the income of private individuals;
- b. ⁷³ of a maximum of 8.5 per cent of the net profit of legal entities;
- c. ... ⁷⁴

² The Confederation, in fixing the taxation rates, shall take account of the burden of direct taxation imposed by the Cantons and communes.

³ In relation to the tax on the income of private individuals, regular revisions shall be made to compensate for the consequences of an increased tax burden due to inflation.

⁴ The tax is assessed and collected by the Cantons. A minimum of 17 per cent of the gross revenue from taxation is allocated to the Cantons. This share may be reduced to 15 per cent if the consequences of financial equalisation so require.⁷⁵

* With transitional provision

⁷³ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov. 2004, in force since 1 Jan. 2007 (Federal Decree of 19 March 2004, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 2 Feb. 2006, – AS 2006 1057 1058; BBl 2003 1531, 2004 1363, 2005 951).

⁷⁴ Repealed by the popular vote on 28 Nov. 2004, with effect from 1 Jan. 2007 (Federal Decree of 19 March 2004, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 2 Feb. 2006 – AS 2006 1057 1058; BBl 2003 1531, 2004 1363, 2005 951).

⁷⁵ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov 2004, in force since 1 Jan. 2008 (Federal Council Decree of 3 Oct 2003, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 7 Nov. 2007 – AS 2007 5765 5771; BBl 2002 2291, 2003 6591, 2005 951).

Art. 129 Tax harmonisation

¹ The Confederation shall set out principles on the harmonisation of the direct taxes imposed by the Confederation, the Cantons and the communes; it shall take account of the efforts towards harmonisation made by the Cantons.

² Harmonisation shall extend to tax liability, the object of the tax and the tax period, procedural law and the law relating to tax offences. Matters excluded from harmonisation shall include in particular tax scales, tax rates and tax allowances.

³ The Confederation may issue regulations to prevent unjustified tax benefits.

Art. 130⁷⁶ Value added tax*

¹ The Confederation may levy value added tax on the supply of goods, on services, including goods and services for personal use, and on imports, at a standard rate of a maximum of 6.5 per cent and at a reduced rate of at least 2.0 per cent.

² The law may provide for the taxation of accommodation services at a rate between the reduced rate and the standard rate.⁷⁷

³ If, due to demographic changes, the financing of the Old-Age, Survivors' and Invalidity Insurance is no longer guaranteed, the standard rate may be increased by federal act by a maximum of 1 percentage point and the reduced rate by a maximum of 0.3 of a percentage point.⁷⁸

⁴ 5 per cent of the non-earmarked revenues shall be used to reduce the health insurance premiums of persons on low incomes, unless an alternative method of assisting such persons is provided for by law.

Art. 131 Special consumption taxes*

¹ The Confederation may level special consumption taxes on:

- a. tobacco and tobacco products;
- b. distilled spirits;
- c. beer;
- d. automobiles and their parts;
- e. petroleum, other mineral oils, natural gas and products obtained by refining these resources, as well as on motor fuels.

⁷⁶ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov. 2004, in force since 1 Jan. 2007 (Federal Decree of 19 March 2004, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 2 Feb. 2006, – AS 2006 1057 1058; BBI 2003 1531, 2004 1363, 2005 951).

* With transitional provision

⁷⁷ The legislature has made use of this power; see Art. 25 para. 4 of the Value Added Tax Act of 12 June 2009 (SR 641.20), under which the rate of value added tax amounts to 3.8% (special rate for accommodation services, valid until 31 Dec. 2013).

⁷⁸ The legislature has made use of this power; see Art. 25 para. 1 and 2 of the Value Added Tax Act of 12 June 2009 (SR 641.20) under which the rates of value added tax amounts to 8 % (standard rate) and 2.5% (reduced rate) until 31 Dec. 2017.

* With transitional provision

² It may levy a surcharge on the consumption tax on motor fuels.

³ The Cantons shall receive ten per cent of the net proceeds from the taxation of distilled spirits. These funds must be used to fight the causes and effects of substance addiction.

Art. 132 Stamp duty and withholding tax*

¹ The Confederation may levy a stamp duty on securities, on receipts for insurance premiums and on other commercial deeds; deeds relating to property and mortgage transactions are exempt from stamp duty.

² The Confederation may levy a withholding tax on income from moveable capital assets, on lottery winnings and on insurance benefits. 10 per cent of the tax revenue shall be allocated to the Cantons.⁷⁹

Art. 133 Customs duties

The Confederation is responsible for legislation on customs duties and other duties on the cross-border movement of goods.

Art. 134 Exclusion of cantonal and communal taxation

Anything that is declared by federal legislation to be subject to, or exempt from value added tax, special consumption taxes, stamp duty or withholding tax may not be made liable to similar taxes by the Cantons or communes.

Art. 135⁸⁰ Equalisation of financial resources and burdens

¹ The Confederation shall issue regulations on the equitable equalisation of financial resources and burdens between the Confederation and the Cantons as well as among the Cantons.

² The equalisation of financial resources and burdens is intended in particular to:

- a. reduce the differences in financial capacity among the Cantons;
- b. guarantee the Cantons a minimum level of financial resources;
- c. compensate for excessive financial burdens on individual Cantons due to geo-topographical or socio-demographic factors;
- d. encourage intercantonal cooperation on burden equalisation;

* With transitional provision

⁷⁹ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov 2004, in force since 1 Jan. 2008 (Federal Council Decree of 3 Oct 2003, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 7 Nov. 2007 – AS 2007 5765 5771; BBl 2002 2291, 2003 6591, 2005 951).

⁸⁰ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov 2004, in force since 1 Jan. 2008 (Federal Council Decree of 3 Oct 2003, Federal Council Decree of 26 Jan. 2005, Federal Council Decree of 7 Nov. 2007 – AS 2007 5765 5771; BBl 2002 2291, 2003 6591, 2005 951).

- e. maintain the tax competitiveness of the Cantons by national and international comparison.

³ The funds for the equalisation of financial resources shall be provided by those Cantons with a higher level of resources and by the Confederation. The payments made by those Cantons with a higher level of resources shall amount to a minimum of two thirds and a maximum of 80 per cent of the payments made by the Confederation.

Title 4: The People and the Cantons

Chapter 1: General Provisions

Art. 136 Political rights

¹ All Swiss citizens over the age of eighteen, unless they lack legal capacity due to mental illness or mental incapacity, have political rights in federal matters. All citizens have the same political rights and duties.

² They may participate in elections to the National Council and in federal popular votes, and launch or sign popular initiatives and requests for referendums in federal matters.

Art. 137 Political parties

The political parties shall contribute to forming the opinion and will of the People.

Chapter 2: Initiative and Referendum

Art. 138 Popular initiative requesting the complete revision of the Federal Constitution

¹ Any 100,000 persons eligible to vote may within 18 months of the official publication of their initiative propose a complete revision of the Federal Constitution.⁸¹

² This proposal must be submitted to a vote of the People.

Art. 139⁸² Popular initiative requesting a partial revision of the Federal Constitution in specific terms

¹ Any 100,000 persons eligible to vote may within 18 months of the official publication of their initiative request a partial revision of the Federal Constitution.

⁸¹ Adopted by the popular vote on 9 Feb. 2003, in force since 1 Aug. 2003 (Federal Decree of 4 Oct. 2002, Federal Council Decree of 25 March 2003, Federal Decree of 19 June 2003 – AS 2003 1949 1953; BBl 2001 4803 6080, 2002 6485, 2003 3111 3954 3960).

⁸² Adopted by the popular vote on 27 Sept. 2009, in force since 27 Sept. 2009 (Federal Decree of 19 Dec. 2008, Federal Council Decree of 1 Dec. 2009 – AS 2009 6409; BBl 2008 2891 2907, 2009 13 8719).

² A popular initiative for the partial revision of the Federal Constitution may take the form of a general proposal or of a specific draft of the provisions proposed.

³ If the initiative fails to comply with the requirements of consistency of form, and of subject matter, or if it infringes mandatory provisions of international law, the Federal Assembly shall declare it to be invalid in whole or in part.

⁴ If the Federal Assembly is in agreement with an initiative in the form of a general proposal, it shall draft the partial revision on the basis of the initiative and submit it to the vote of the People and the Cantons. If the Federal Assembly rejects the initiative, it shall submit it to a vote of the People; the People shall decide whether the initiative should be adopted. If they vote in favour, the Federal Assembly shall draft the corresponding bill.

⁵ An initiative in the form of a specific draft shall be submitted to the vote of the People and the Cantons. The Federal Assembly shall recommend whether the initiative should be adopted or rejected. It may submit a counter-proposal to the initiative.

Art. 139a ⁸³

Art. 139b ⁸⁴ Procedure applicable to an initiative and counter-proposal

¹ The People vote on the initiative and the counter-proposal at the same time. ⁸⁵

² The People may vote in favour of both proposals. In response to the third question, they may indicate the proposal that they prefer if both are accepted.

³ If in response to the third question one proposal to amend the Constitution receives more votes from the People and the other more votes from the Cantons, the proposal that comes into force is that which achieves the higher sum if the percentage of votes of the People and the percentage of votes of the Cantons in the third question are added together.

⁸³ Adopted by the popular vote on 9 Feb. 2003 (Federal Decree of 4 Oct. 2002, Federal Council Decree of 25 March 2003 – AS 2003 1949; BBl 2001 4803 6080, 2002 6485, 2003 3111). Art. 140 Mandatory referendum

¹ The following must be put to the vote of the People and the Cantons:

- a. amendments to the Federal Constitution;
- b. accession to organisations for collective security or to supranational communities;
- c. emergency federal acts that are not based on a provision of the Constitution and whose term of validity exceeds one year; such federal acts must be put to the vote within one year of being passed by the Federal Assembly.

² The following are submitted to a vote of the People:

- a. popular initiatives for a complete revision of the Federal Constitution;
- abis*. ...⁸⁶
- b.⁸⁷ popular initiatives for a partial revision of the Federal Constitution in the form of a general proposal that have been rejected by the Federal Assembly;
 - c. the question of whether a complete revision of the Federal Constitution should be carried out, in the event that there is disagreement between the two Councils.

Art. 141 Optional referendum

¹ If within 100 days of the official publication of the enactment any 50,000 persons eligible to vote or any eight Cantons request it, the following shall be submitted to a vote of the People:⁸⁸

- a. federal acts;
- b. emergency federal acts whose term of validity exceeds one year;
- c. federal decrees, provided the Constitution or an act so requires;
- d. international treaties that:
 1. are of unlimited duration and may not be terminated;
 2. provide for accession to an international organisation;

3.⁸⁹ contain important legislative provisions or whose implementation requires the enactment of federal legislation.

2 ...⁹⁰

Art. 141a⁹¹ Implementation of international treaties

¹ If the decision on ratification of an international treaty is subject to a mandatory referendum, the Federal Assembly may incorporate in the decision on ratification the amendments to the Constitution that provide for the implementation of the treaty.

² If the decision on ratification of an international treaty is subject to an optional referendum, the Federal Assembly may incorporate in the decision on ratification the amendments to the law that provide for the implementation of the treaty.

Art. 142 Required majorities

¹ Proposals that are submitted to the vote of the People are accepted if a majority of those who vote approve them.

² Proposals that are submitted to the vote of the People and Cantons are accepted if a majority of those who vote and a majority of the Cantons approve them.

³ The result of a popular vote in a Canton determines the vote of the Canton.

⁴ The Cantons of Obwalden, Nidwalden, Basel-Stadt, Basel-Landschaft, Appenzell Ausserrhoden and Appenzell Innerrhoden each have half a cantonal vote.

Title 5: Federal Authorities

Art. 144 Incompatibility

¹ No member of the National Council, of the Council of States, of the Federal Council or judge of the Federal Supreme Court may at the same time be a member of any other of these bodies.

² No member of the Federal Council or full-time judges of the Federal Supreme Court may hold any other federal or cantonal office or undertake any other gainful economic activity.

³ The law may provide for further forms of incompatibility.

Art. 145 Term of office

The members of the National Council and of the Federal Council as well as the Federal Chancellor are elected for a term of office of four years. Judges of the Federal Supreme Court have a term of office of six years.

Art. 146 State liability

The Confederation shall be liable for damage or loss unlawfully caused by its organs in the exercise of official activities.

Art. 147 Consultation procedure

The Cantons, the political parties and interested groups shall be invited to express their views when preparing important legislation or other projects of substantial impact as well as in relation to significant international treaties.

Chapter 2: Federal AssemblySection 1: Organisation*Art. 148 Status

¹ Subject to the rights of the People and the Cantons, the Federal Assembly is the supreme authority of the Confederation.

² The Federal Assembly comprises two chambers, the National Council and the Council of States; both chambers shall be of equal standing.

Art. 149 Composition and election of the National Council

¹ The National Council is composed of 200 representatives of the People.

² The representatives are elected directly by the People according to a system of proportional representation. A general election is held every four years.

³ Each Canton constitutes an electoral constituency.

⁴ The seats are allocated to the Cantons according to their relative populations. Each Canton has at least one seat.

Art. 150 Composition and election of the Council of States

² The Cantons of Obwalden, Nidwalden, Basel-Stadt, Basel-Landschaft, Appenzell Ausserrhoden and Appenzell Innerrhoden each elect one representative; the other Cantons each elect two representatives.

³ The Cantons determine the rules for the election of their representatives to the Council of States.

Art. 151 Sessions

¹ The Councils convene in session regularly. The convening of sessions is governed by law.

² The Federal Council or one quarter of the members of either Council may request that the Councils be convened for an extraordinary session.

Art. 152 Presidency

Each Council elects a President from its members for a term of one year, together with a first Vice-President and a second Vice-President. Re-election for the following year is not permitted.

Art. 153 Parliamentary committees

¹ Each Council forms committees from its members.

² The law may provide for joint committees.

³ The law may delegate specific powers, which may not be legislative in their nature, to committees.

⁴ In order to fulfil their duties, the committees have the right to information and to inspect documents and the power to conduct investigations. The extent of such rights and powers is governed by the law.

Art. 154 Parliamentary groups

The members the Federal Assembly may form parliamentary groups.

Art. 155 Parliamentary Services

The Federal Assembly has parliamentary services at its disposal. It may call on the services of offices of the Federal Administration. The details are regulated by law.

Section 2: Procedure

Art. 156 Separate proceedings

¹ The proceedings of the National Council and Council of States take place separately.

² Decisions of the Federal Assembly require the agreement of both Chambers.

³ Provision shall be made by the law to ensure that in the event of disagreement between the Councils decisions are made on:

- a. the validity or partial invalidity of a popular initiative;
- b.⁹² the implementation of a popular initiative in the form of a general proposal that has been adopted by the People;
- c.⁹³ the implementation of a Federal Decree initiating a total revision of the Federal Constitution that has been approved by the People;
- d. the budget or any amendment to it.⁹⁴

Art. 157 Joint proceedings

¹ The National Council and Council of States hold joint proceedings as the United Federal Assembly under the presidency of the President of the National Council in order to:

- a. conduct elections;
- b. decide on conflicts of jurisdiction between the highest federal authorities;
- c. decide on applications for pardons.

² The United Federal Assembly also convenes for special events and to hear declarations made by the Federal Council.

Art. 158 Public meetings

- g. the organisation and procedure of the federal authorities.

² Legislative powers may be delegated by federal act unless this is prohibited by the Federal Constitution.

Art. 165 Emergency legislation

¹ Federal acts whose coming into force cannot be delayed (emergency federal acts) may be declared urgent by an absolute majority of the members of each of the two Councils and be brought into force immediately. Such acts must be of limited duration.

² If a referendum is requested on an emergency federal act, the act must be repealed one year after being passed by the Federal Assembly if it has not in the meantime been approved by the People.

³ An emergency federal act that does not have the Constitution as its basis must be repealed one year after being passed by the Federal Assembly if it has not in the meantime been approved by the People and the Cantons. Any such act must be of limited duration.

⁴ An emergency federal act that is not approved in a popular vote may not be renewed.

Art. 166 Foreign relations and international treaties

¹ The Federal Assembly shall participate in shaping foreign policy and supervise the maintenance of foreign relations.

² It shall approve international treaties, with the exception of those that are concluded by the Federal Council under a statutory provision or an international treaty.

Art. 167 Finance

The Federal Assembly determines the expenditure of the Confederation, adopts the budget and approves the federal accounts.

Art. 168 Appointments

¹ The Federal Assembly elects the members of the Federal Council, the Federal Chancellor, the judges of the Federal Supreme Court and, in times of war, the Commander-in-Chief of the armed forces ("the General").

² The law may authorise the Federal Assembly to make or confirm other appointments.

Art. 169 Oversight

¹ The Federal Assembly exercises oversight over the Federal Council and the Federal Administration, the federal courts and other bodies entrusted with the tasks of the Confederation.

² Official secrecy does not apply in dealings with the special delegations of supervisory committees that are established under the law.

Art. 170 Evaluation of effectiveness

The Federal Assembly shall ensure that federal measures are evaluated with regard to their effectiveness.

Art. 171 Tasks of the Federal Council

The Federal Assembly may assign functions to the Federal Council. The details are regulated by law, and in particular the means by which the Federal Assembly may intervene in matters that fall within the remit of the Federal Council.

Art. 172 Relations between the Confederation and the Cantons

¹ The Federal Assembly shall ensure the maintenance of good relations between the Confederation and the Cantons.

² It shall guarantee the cantonal constitutions.

³ It shall decide whether to approve intercantonal agreements and treaties between Cantons and foreign countries where the Federal Council or a Canton raises an objection to any such treaty.

Art. 173 Further duties and powers

¹ The Federal Assembly has the following additional duties and powers:

- a. taking measures to safeguard external security and the independence and neutrality of Switzerland.
- b. taking measures to safeguard internal security.
- c. if extraordinary circumstances require, issuing ordinances or simple federal decrees in order to fulfil its duties under letters (a) and (b).
- d. regulating active service and mobilising the armed forces or sections thereof for this purpose.
- e. taking measures to enforce federal law.
- f. ruling on the validity of popular initiatives that meet the formal requirements.
- g. participating in the general planning of state activities.
- h. deciding on individual acts where a federal act expressly so provides.
- i. deciding on conflicts of jurisdiction between the highest federal authorities.
- k. issuing pardons and deciding on amnesties.

² The Federal Assembly also deals with matters that fall within the remit of the Confederation and are not the responsibility of any other authority.

³ Other duties and powers may be delegated by law to the Federal Assembly.

Chapter 3: Federal Council and Federal AdministrationSection 1: Organisation and Procedure*Art. 174 Federal Council

The Federal Council is the supreme governing and executive authority of the Confederation.

Art. 175 Composition and election

¹ The Federal Council has seven members.

² The members of the Federal Council are elected by the Federal Assembly following each general election to the National Council.

³ They are elected for a term of office of four years. Any Swiss citizen eligible for election to the National Council may be elected to the Federal Council.⁹⁷

⁹⁷ Adopted by the popular vote on 7 Feb. 1999 (Federal Decree of 9 Oct. 1998, Federal Council Decree of 2 March 1999 – AS 1999 1239; BBl 1993 IV 554, 1994 III 1370, 1998 4800, 1999 2475 8768).

⁴ In electing the Federal Council, care must be taken to ensure that the various geographical and language regions of the country are appropriately represented.⁹⁸

Art. 176 Presidency

² The President and the Vice-President of the Federal Council are elected by the Federal Assembly from the members of the Federal Council for a term of office of one year.

³ Re-election for the following year is not permitted. The President may not be elected Vice-President for the following year.

Art. 177 Principle of collegiality and allocation to departments

¹ The Federal Council reaches its decisions as a collegial body.

² For the purposes of preparation and implementation, the business of the Federal Council is allocated to its individual members according to department.

³ Business may be delegated to and directly dealt with by departments or their subordinate administrative units; in such cases, the right to legal recourse is guaranteed.

Art. 178 Federal Administration

¹ The Federal Council is in charge of the Federal Administration. It ensures that it is organised appropriately and that it fulfils its duties effectively.

² The Federal Administration is organised into Departments; each Department is headed by a member of the Federal Council.

³ Administrative tasks may by law be delegated to public or private organisations, entities or persons that do not form part of the Federal Administration.

Art. 179 Federal Chancellery

The Federal Chancellery is the general administrative office of the Federal Council. It is headed by a Federal Chancellor.

Section 2: Powers

Art. 180 Government policy

¹ The Federal Council decides on the objectives of federal government policy and the means by which they should be achieved. It plans and coordinates state activities.

⁹⁸ Adopted by the popular vote on 7 Feb. 1999 (Federal Decree of 9 Oct. 1998, Federal Council Decree of 2 March 1999 – AS 1999 1239; BBl 1993 IV 554, 1994 III 1370, 1998 4800, 1999 2475 8768).

² It informs the general public fully and in good time about its activities, unless overriding public or private interests prevent this.

Art. 181 Right to initiate legislation

The Federal Council submits drafts of Federal Assembly legislation to the Federal Assembly.

Art. 182 Lawmaking and implementation of legislation

¹ The Federal Council enacts legislative provisions in the form of ordinances, provided it has the authority to do so under the Constitution or the law.

² It ensures the implementation of legislation, the resolutions of the Federal Assembly and the judgments of federal judicial authorities.

Art. 183 Finances

¹ The Federal Council draws up the financial plan and the draft budget and prepare the federal accounts.

² It ensures orderly financial management.

Art. 184 Foreign relations

¹ The Federal Council is responsible for foreign relations, subject to the right of participation of the Federal Assembly; it represents Switzerland abroad.

² It signs and ratifies international treaties. It submits them to the Federal Assembly for approval.

³ Where safeguarding the interests of the country so requires, the Federal Council may issue ordinances and rulings. Ordinances must be of limited duration.

Art. 185 External and internal security

² It takes measures to safeguard internal security.

³ It may in direct application of this Article issue ordinances and rulings in order to counter existing or imminent threats of serious disruption to public order or internal or external security. Such ordinances must be limited in duration.

⁴ In cases of emergency, it may mobilise the armed forces. Where it mobilises more than 4,000 members of the armed forces for active service or where the deployment of such troops is expected to last for more than three weeks, the Federal Assembly must be convened without delay.

Art. 186 Relations between the Confederation and the Cantons

¹ The Federal Council is responsible for maintaining relations between the Confederation and the Cantons and collaborates with the latter.

² It may approve cantonal legislation when required to do so by federal law.

³ It may object to treaties between Cantons or between Cantons and foreign countries.

⁴ It ensures compliance with federal law, as well as the cantonal constitutions and cantonal treaties and takes the measures required to fulfil this duty.

Art. 187 Further duties and powers

¹ The Federal Council also has the following duties and powers:

- a. supervising the Federal Administration and the other bodies entrusted with federal duties.
- b. reporting regularly to the Federal Assembly on the conduct of its business as well as on the situation in Switzerland.
- c. making appointments that do not fall within the remit of other authorities.
- d. dealing with appeals, where the law so provides.

² Other duties and powers may be delegated by law to the Federal Council.

Chapter 4:⁹⁹ Federal Supreme Court and other Judicial Authorities*Art. 188 Status

² Its organisation and procedure are governed by law.

³ The Federal Supreme Court has its own administration.

Art. 189 Jurisdiction of the Federal Supreme Court

- a. federal law;
- b. international law;
- c. inter-cantonal law;
- d. cantonal constitutional rights;

- f. federal and cantonal provisions on political rights.

^{1bis} ...¹⁰⁰

² It hears disputes between the Confederation and Cantons or between Cantons.

³ The jurisdiction of the Federal Supreme Court may be extended by law.

⁴ Acts of the Federal Assembly or the Federal Council may not be challenged in the Federal Supreme Court. Exceptions may be provided for by law.

Art. 190 Applicable law

The Federal Supreme Court and the other judicial authorities apply the federal acts and international law.

Art. 191 Access to the Federal Supreme Court

¹ Access to the Federal Supreme Court is guaranteed by law.

² For disputes that do not relate to a legal issue of fundamental importance, the law may stipulate a threshold for the amount in dispute.

³ The law may exclude access to the Federal Supreme Court in relation to specific matters.

⁴ The law may provide for a simplified procedure for appeals that are manifestly unfounded.

Art. 191a¹⁰¹ Other federal judicial authorities

¹ The Confederation shall appoint a criminal court, which hears at first instance criminal cases that by law come under federal jurisdiction. The law may confer further powers on the Federal Criminal Court.

² The Confederation shall appoint judicial authorities to hear public law disputes that come under the jurisdiction of the Federal Administration.

³ The law may provide for further federal judicial authorities.

The remaining paragraphs come into force at a later date.

Art. 191b Cantonal judicial authorities

¹ The Cantons shall appoint judicial authorities to judge civil and public law disputes and criminal law cases.

² They may appoint joint judicial authorities.

Art. 191c Independence of the judiciary

The judicial authorities are independent in the exercise of their judicial powers and are bound only by the law.

Title 6:Revision of the Federal Constitution and Transitional Provisions*Chapter 1: Revision*Art. 192 Principle

¹ The Federal Constitution may be totally or partially revised at any time.

² Unless the Federal Constitution and the legislation based on it provides otherwise, any revision of the Federal Constitution is made by the legislative process.

Art. 193 Total revision

¹ A total revision of the Federal Constitution may be proposed by the People or by either of the two Councils or be decreed by the Federal Assembly.

² If the initiative emanates from the People or if the two Chambers are unable to agree, the People decide on whether a total revision should be carried out.

³ If the People vote for a total revision, new elections shall be held to both Chambers.

⁴ The mandatory provisions of international law must not be violated.

Art. 194 Partial revision

¹ A partial revision of the Federal Constitution may be requested by the People or decreed by the Federal Assembly.

² The partial revision must respect the principle of cohesion of subject matter and must not violate mandatory provisions of international law.

³ The popular initiative for partial revision must also respect the principle of consistency of form.

Art. 195 Commencement

The totally or partly revised Federal Constitution comes into force when it is approved by the People and the Cantons.

Chapter 2: Transitional Provisions

Art. 196 Transitional provisions in terms of the Federal Decree of 18 December 1998 on a new Federal Constitution¹⁰²

1. Transitional provision to Art. 84 (Transalpine transit traffic)

The transfer of freight transit traffic from road to rail must be completed ten years after the adoption of the popular initiative for the protection of the alpine regions from transit traffic.

2. Transitional provision to Art. 85 (Flat-rate heavy vehicle charge)

¹ The Confederation shall levy an annual charge for the use of roads that are open to general traffic on domestic and foreign motor vehicles and trailers that have a maximum permissible weight of over 3.5 tonnes.

² This charge amounts to:

- | | | |
|----|--|------|
| a. | for trucks and articulated motor vehicles of | |
| | | Fr. |
| | – over 3.5 to 12 t | 650 |
| | – over 12 to 18 t | 2000 |
| | – over 18 to 26 t | 3000 |
| | – over 26 t | 4000 |
| b. | for trailers of | |
| | – over 3.5 to 8 t | 650 |
| | – over 8 to 10 t | 1500 |
| | – over 10 t | 2000 |
| c. | for coaches | 650 |

³ The rates of the charge may be adjusted by federal act insofar as this is justified by the cost of road transport.

⁴ In addition, the Federal Council may adjust by ordinance the tariff category above 12 t in accordance with paragraph 2 to comply with any amendments to the weight categories contained in the Road Traffic Act of 19 December 1958¹⁰³.

⁵ For vehicles that are not on the road in Switzerland for the entire year, the Federal Council shall determine suitably graduated rates of the charge; it shall take account of the costs of collecting the charge.

⁶ The Federal Council shall regulate the implementation of the charge. It may determine rates in terms of paragraph 2 for special categories of vehicle, exempt certain vehicles from the charge and issue special regulations, in particular for journeys in border areas. Such regulations must not result in vehicles registered abroad being treated more favourably than Swiss vehicles. The Federal Council may provide for ⁷ The charge may be limited or abolished by law.

⁸ This provision applies until the Heavy Vehicle Charge Act of 19 December 1997¹⁰⁴ comes into force.

3. Transitional provision to Art. 87 (Railways and other carriers)

¹ The major rail projects include the New Rail Link through the Alps (NRLA), RAIL 2000, the connection of Eastern and Western Switzerland to the European High Speed Rail Network as well as the improvement of noise protection along railway lines through active and passive measures.

² In order to fund the major rail projects, the Federal Council may:

- a. use all revenues from the flat-rate heavy vehicle charge in accordance with Article 196 No 2 until the performance or consumption based heavy vehicle charge in terms of Article 85 comes into force and may, for this purpose, increase the rates of the charge by a maximum of 100 per cent;
- b. use a maximum of two thirds of the revenues from the performance or consumption-based heavy vehicle charge in terms of Article 85;
- c. use mineral oil tax revenues in terms of Article 86 paragraph 3 letter b in order to cover 25 per cent of the total expenditures on the NRLA base lines;
- d. raise funds on the capital market, up to a maximum however of 25 per cent of the total expenditures for NRLA, RAIL 2000 and connection of Eastern and Western Switzerland to the European High Speed Rail Network;
- e.¹⁰⁵ increase the value added tax rates laid down in Article 130 paragraphs 1-3 by 0.1 percentage point;
- f. provide for additional funding from private sources or through international organisations.

³ The funding of the major rail projects in accordance with paragraph 1 shall be carried out through a fund that is legally dependent on the Confederation but which keeps its own accounts. The resources from the charges and taxes mentioned in paragraph 2 shall be entered in the financial accounts of the Confederation and paid into the fund in the same year. The Confederation may grant advances to the fund. The Federal Assembly shall enact the fund regulations in the form of an ordinance.

⁴ The four major rail projects in terms of paragraph 1 shall be adopted by federal acts. Proof must be established of the necessity and readiness for implementation. For each major project in its entirety. In the case of the NRLA project, each of the construction phases shall form the subject matter of a federal act. The Federal As-

7.¹³² Transitional Provision to Art. 120 (Non-human gene technology)

Swiss agriculture shall remain free of gene technology for a period of five years following the adoption of this constitutional provision. In particular, the following may neither be imported nor placed on the market:

- a. genetically modified plants that are capable of propagation, parts of plants and seeds that are intended for agricultural, horticultural or forestry use in the environment;
- b. genetically modified animals that are intended for the production of food-stuffs and other agricultural products.

8.¹³³ Transitional provision to Art. 121 (Residence and Permanent Settlement of Foreign Nationals)

The legislature must define and add to the offences covered by Article 121 paragraph 3 and issue the criminal provisions relating to illegal entry in accordance with Article 121 paragraph 6 within five years of the adoption of Article 121 paragraphs 3–6 by the People and the Cantons.

9.¹³⁴ Transitional provision to Art. 75b (Second homes)

¹ If the relevant legislation does not come into force within two years of the adoption of Article 75b, the Federal Council shall issue the required implementing provisions on construction, sale and recording in the land register by ordinance.

² Building permits for second homes granted between 1 January of the year following the adoption of Article 75b and the date on which the implementing provisions come into force shall be null and void.

10.¹³⁵ Transitional provision to Art. 95 para. 3

Until the statutory provisions come into force, the Federal Council shall issue the required implementing provisions within one year of the adoption of Article 95 paragraph 3 by the People and the Cantons.

¹³² Adopted by the popular vote on 27 Nov. 2005 (Federal Decree of 17 June 2005, Federal Council Decree of 19 Jan. 2006 – AS 2006 89; BBl 2003 6903, 2004 4937, 2005 4039, 2006 1061). Nos. 2–6 are reserved for the transitional provisions on the restructuring of the financial equalisation and division of tasks between the Confederation and Cantons (NFE), adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov. 2004.

¹³³ Adopted by the popular vote on 28 Nov. 2010, in force since 28 Nov. 2010 (Federal Decree of 18 June 2010, Federal Council Decree of 17 March 2011 – AS 2011 1199; BBl 2008 1927, 2009 5097, 2010 4241, 2011 2771).

¹³⁵ Adopted by the popular vote on 3 March 2013, in force since 3 March 2013 (Federal Council Decree of 15 Nov. 2012 und 30 April 2013 - AS 2013 1303; BBl 2006 8755, 2008 2577, 2009 299, 2012 9219, 2013 3129).

11.¹³⁶ Transitional provision to Art. 121a (Control of immigration)

¹ International agreements that contradict Article 121a must be renegotiated and amended within three years of its adoption by the People and the Cantons.

² If the implementing legislation for Article 121a has not come into force within three years of its adoption by the People and the Cantons, the Federal Council shall issue temporary implementing provisions in the form of an ordinance.

Commencement Date: 1 January 2000¹³⁷

Final Provisions of the Federal Decree of 18 December 1998

II

¹ The Federal Constitution of the Swiss Confederation of 29 May 1874¹³⁸ is repealed.

² The following provisions of the Federal Constitution, which must be re-enacted as statute law, continue to apply until the corresponding statutory provisions come into force:

a. Art. 32^{quater} para. 6¹³⁹

Hawking and other forms of itinerant sale of spirits are prohibited.

b. Art. 36^{quinquies} para. 1 first sentence, 2 second–last sentence and 4 second sentence¹⁴⁰

¹ For the use of first and second class motorways, the Confederation shall levy an annual charge of 40 francs on each Swiss and foreign motor vehicle and trailer with a total weight not exceeding 3.5 tonnes. ...

¹³⁶ Adopted by the popular vote on 9 Feb. 2014, in force since 9 Feb. 2014 (Federal Decree of 27 Sept. 2013, Federal Council Decree of 13 May 2014 – AS 2014 1391; BBl 2011 6269, 2012 3869, 2013 291 7351, 2014 4117).

¹³⁹ Art. 105

¹⁴⁰ Art. 86 para. 2

² ... The Federal Council may exempt specific vehicles from the charge and issue special regulations, in particular for journeys made in border areas. Such regulations must not result in vehicles registered abroad being treated more favourably than Swiss vehicles. The Federal Council may impose fines for contraventions of the regulations. The Cantons shall collect the charge for vehicles registered in Switzerland and monitor compliance of all vehicles with the regulations.

⁴ ... The charge may be extended by federal act to further categories of vehicle that are not liable to pay the heavy vehicle charge.

c. Art. 121^{bis} para. 1, 2 and para. 3 first and second sentence¹⁴¹

¹ If the Federal Assembly decides to submit a counter-proposal, voters shall be asked three questions on the same ballot paper. Each voter has the unrestricted right to state:

1. whether he or she prefers the popular initiative to the existing law;
2. whether he or she prefers the counter-proposal to the existing law;
3. which of the two proposals should come into force in the event that the People and the Cantons prefer both proposals to the existing law.

² The absolute majority shall be calculated separately for each question. Unanswered questions shall not be taken into consideration.

³ If both the popular initiative and the counter-proposal are accepted, the result of the third question shall be decisive. The proposal that receives the greater number of votes from the People and from the Cantons on this question shall come into force.

III

The Federal Assembly shall adapt amendments to the Federal Constitution of 29 May 1874 to the new Federal Constitution as regards their form. The decree issued to this effect shall not be subject to a referendum.

IV

¹ This Decree must be submitted to a vote of the People and the Cantons.

² The Federal Assembly shall determine its commencement date.
